

Chiscani, Braila. Thanks to increased paper production, more and more books dealing with national and world literature as well as technical and scientific works are being produced. For the new way of life in the Rumanian People's Republic requires men to be instructed.

For many years now the Delta is no longer "the cursed land". "Kherkhanadji", malaria and poverty no longer exist. Today this region is known as the "land of man's happiness".

---

Viet Nam

DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC

The Red Cross of the Democratic Republic of Viet Nam has recently had the brief Summary of the Geneva Conventions of August 12, 1949, translated and published in the Vietnamese language.

This is the same booklet which the International Committee of the Red Cross has distributed since 1952 in French, German, English, Arabic and Spanish for the use of members of the armed forces and of the public.

The Red Cross world will have satisfaction in knowing that these basic notions relative to the Geneva Conventions have thus been placed within the reach of the general public in the Democratic Republic of Viet Nam.

---

Yugoslavia

The Yugoslav Red Cross has been good enough to send the ICRC an illustrated booklet which it has had published<sup>1</sup>. Entitled "The health worker and the Geneva Conventions", and composed of 24 small-format pages, it is intended to popularize and make

---

<sup>1</sup> Zdravstveni radnik i Zenevske Konvencije, Beograd, 1962.