from M. E. Sharpe, Inc.

Barrington Moore, Jr.

Injustice

The Social Bases of Obedience and Revolt

"... will likely challenge in profoundly important ways, conventional wisdom in political theory for years to come..."
—The Atlantic Monthly

"... the questions it raises are of fundamental historical, political, and moral importance, and the answers which Barrington Moore suggests are stimulating and controversial..."

—The New York Review of Books
Cloth $17.50 Paper $7.95***

Paul Mattick

Anti-Bolshevik Communism

"(This) collection of articles written over a period of 40 years, is the clearest and most documented exposition of council communism as a critique of Bolshevism and an alternative to party and trade union ideology." —Richard Gombin,

Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique, Paris $17.50

Michael Rose

Servants of Post-Industrial Power? Sociologie du Travail in Modern France

"An excellent study which makes a real contribution to the sociology of industry and labour..." —Anthony Giddens,
Cambridge University

"... an indispensable guide to the important French writing on current developments in factories and offices..." —S. M. Miller,

Boston University
$22.50

Renato Constantino

Neocolonial Identity and Counter-Consciousness

Essays on Cultural Decolonization

*Edited with an introduction
by István Mészáros*

"This book, like Fanon's, will become a major classic in the field... written with a literary grace of rare beauty, by a man who is both a (Filipino) scholar and a committed intellectual—combining the strength of both... a major brilliant effort that tells us an immense amount that is both original and vitally important about the Third World's dilemmas today." —Gabriel Kolko,

York University $20.00

Murray Yanowitch

Social and Economic Inequality in the Soviet Union Six Studies

"One of the most perceptive and stimulating studies of social differentiation... One of the most important books on Soviet society to be published this decade."

—Alastair McAuley, Soviet Studies

Soviet Work Attitudes

The Issue of Participation in Management

The first collection of Soviet studies on workers' attitudes towards their jobs.
The selections provide clear evidence of Soviet concerns with the problem of work discontent and of pressures to reconcile more participatory forms of work organization with a centrally planned economy. $15.00

SOCIAL ADMINISTRATION ASSOCIATION

The Association exists for those whose work consists mainly of teaching or research in the fields of Social Administration and Social Policy. It was formed some years ago to enable staff from universities, polytechnics, technical and other colleges, independent and Government research organisations to meet and discuss matters of common interest.

The Association acts as a representative of its members and of Social Administration through contacts with the Social Science Research Council, the Council for National Academic Awards and the Business Education Council.

The Association has specialist groups which meet to discuss the teaching of social policy and public expenditure and social policy.

The Association holds an Annual Conference. The 1980 conference will be from 17th to 19th July in Cambridge. The theme will be 'The Evaluation of Social Policies'.

The current membership subscription is £18.00 per calendar year; this includes the subscription to the Association's Journal, the Journal of Social Policy (four issues per year).

The Politics of Positive Discrimination

An Evaluation of the Urban Programme 1967-77

This book provides an essential contribution to the current debate concerning the glaring problems of the inner city, and how they should be met. The authors give a close, and at times 'blow-by-blow' account of how and why Britain's first area discrimination programme, the Urban Programme, came about.

'Essential and enjoyable reading for all urban planners.'

CATHERINE JONES

Immigration and Social Policy in Britain

'A well documented, penetrating and unemotional analysis of the interplay between immigrants and statutory social policy.'

New Society

'Altogether this is a first class book which is lucidly written and stimulatingly presented. Catherine Jones has an interesting and persuasive argument to put forward and what she says should be studied by the serious student of community relations.'

Journal of Social Policy

Notes for Contributors

1. All contributions and correspondence should be sent to: The Editor, Journal of Social Policy, The London School of Economics and Political Science, Houghton Street, London WC2A 2AE. All books for review should be sent to: The Review Editor, Journal of Social Policy, Department of Sociology and Social Administration, University of Southampton, Highfield, Southampton SO9 5NH.
2. Articles should generally contain between 5,000 and 10,000 words including footnotes, although longer or shorter articles may be accepted by arrangement with the Editor. Short articles stand a better chance of early publication.
3. Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, or is not being considered for publication elsewhere. If an author is publishing a related article elsewhere, this fact should be stated.
4. Contributions (articles, review articles, reviews) should be clearly typed on one side of the paper only using a conventional size of paper, preferably A4. All material should be typed double-spaced with generous margins. Contributors should send two copies and keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.
5. Contributions should be accompanied by an abstract of between one and two hundred words.
6. References to books and articles should include the following details: in the case of books, the full title and author or authors, place of publication, publisher and date; in the case of articles, the title and author or authors, full name of the journal, volume, year and page reference (first and last page). References and other footnotes should be numbered consecutively throughout and typed separately at the end of the article. Good articles which contain this bibliographical information will be accepted, even if they do not follow the journal's own arrangement of the information.
7. Tables should be clearly laid out and designed to fit on to a page 234 mm × 155 mm. Vertical lines between columns should be omitted, and horizontal lines limited to the top and bottom of the table, with an additional one below the column headings. Totals and percentages should be labelled, and units identified.
8. Contributors are advised to look through earlier issues of the journal for guidance on points of general style.
9. First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the editor, by airmail where appropriate, within seven days of receiving them. The master proof will always be sent direct to the editor by the printer; contributors will receive duplicates.
10. Authors of articles and review articles (but not book reviews) receive twenty-five free offprints. Additional copies may be bought if ordered at proof stage.
11. Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyright, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press, to help protect their material, particularly in the USA.
