New AAS Book Series

ASIA Past and Present

New Research from AAS

Call For Manuscripts

The Association for Asian Studies announces a new scholarly book series —“Asia Past and Present: New Research from AAS”—to be published under the Association’s own imprint.

This series succeeds a distinguished and successful predecessor, “AAS Monographs and Occasional Papers,” which brought out fifty-nine titles between 1951 and 2000. The new enterprise will be overseen by the AAS Editorial Board and the Series Editor, Martha Ann Selby, professor of Asian Studies at the University of Texas, Austin.

AAS expects to publish 2-3 books a year, each of them fully refereed and selected on the basis of exemplary, original, and enduring scholarship. Although submissions in all areas of Asian studies are welcome, the Board particularly hopes to support work in emerging or under-represented fields, such as South Asia, premodern Asia, language and literature, art history, and literary criticism. In addition to monographs, translations, essay collections, and other forms of scholarly research will be considered. Authors must be current members of AAS.

KEY ISSUES IN ASIAN STUDIES

VITAL RESOURCES FOR YOUR CLASSROOM OR LIBRARY!

Gender, Sexuality, and Body Politics in Modern Asia, Michael G. Peletz
ISBN 978-0-924304-50-7, 2007, 6" x 9" paperback, 120 pages, $10.00

Political Rights in Post-Mao China, Merle Goldman
ISBN 978-0-924304-51-4, 2007, 6" x 9" paperback, 80 pages, $10.00

Published by the Association for Asian Studies, "KEY ISSUES IN ASIAN STUDIES" is a new series of booklets designed for use in undergraduate humanities and social science courses, as well as by advanced high school students and their teachers. These booklets introduce students to major cultural and historical themes and are designed to encourage classroom debate and discussion.

The first two booklets, written by leading teachers/scholars in their fields—"Political Rights in Post-Mao China" by Merle Goldman and "Gender, Sexuality, and Body Politics in Modern Asia" by Michael G. Peletz—are now available for purchase ($10 each).

More exciting titles are in the works—the AAS plans to publish 2–3 "Key Issues" booklets each year. Potential titles include: Japanese Popular Culture and Globalization, Traditional China in Asian and World History, Understanding East Asia's Economic Miracles, Global India, ca 100 CE, Korea in World History, and Caste in India.

CONTACT INFORMATION FOR MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION

Please contact the editorial office with inquiries about material for possible publication and correspondence to the Editor:

Jeffrey Wasserstrom, Editor, Journal of Asian Studies
University of California, Irvine
E-Mail: jas@journalofasianstudies.org
Phone: 949-824-6521
Fax: 949-824-2865

Completed manuscripts may be sent electronically to the above address.

Please send all books for review to the Association office in Ann Arbor; see Contact Information: Books for Review below.

REQUIREMENTS FOR MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION

When preparing a manuscript, please note that JAS is committed to publishing articles based on in-depth, original research. Authors should also take care to address the interests of our broad, multidisciplinary readership by raising larger questions of interest that reach beyond their precise research specialties. Authors are encouraged to consult recent issues of JAS for guidance on style and formatting.

- Please submit inquiries, manuscripts and images electronically to the Editor at jas@journalofasianstudies.org. Electronic text should use MS Word-compatible software; include a PDF file if using non-standard characters. Low-resolution images and illustrations are acceptable for the review process; all images, tables and figures should include titles or captions. Please note that in the event of publication, the author is responsible for acquiring high-resolution images along with permission to publish them. If electronic submission is not possible, please contact the editorial office at the email address, phone number or fax number listed above.
- Article manuscripts, including notes and references, should range between 8,000 and 10,000 words, or approximately thirty-five pages in length, and must include a 150 word abstract at the beginning of the document.
- Authors' names must be left off of the manuscript, as JAS engages in double-blind reviews.
- Manuscripts must be double-spaced with 12-point type and 1 inch margins including extracts, notes, and references, and formatted for letter-size (8.5 × 11 in.) paper if possible.
- Notes should be as few as possible and appear at the end of the text.
- Use parenthetical in-text citation, and author-date formatting for references per Chicago Manual of Style, 15th edition (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2003), pp. 616–24.
- Please use the following Romanization: Chinese: Pinyin; Japanese: Hepburn; Korean: McCune-Reischauer.
- Paper manuscript submissions are acceptable if electronic submission is not possible. Please include four copies of your document in the submission packet.
- Manuscripts submitted to JAS should not have been published elsewhere and should not be under review for publication elsewhere.

Articles in JAS represent neither the views of the Association for Asian Studies nor those of the JAS editors. The Editor is responsible for the final selection of content of JAS and reserves the right to reject any material deemed inappropriate for publication. Responsibility for opinions expressed and the accuracy of facts published in articles and reviews rests solely with the individual authors.
