THE REVIEW OF POLITICS

A quarterly published by the University of Notre Dame, Indiana, U.S.A.

Edited by WALDEMAR GURIAN

The REVIEW OF POLITICS is primarily interested in the philosophical and historical approach to the political realities, without neglecting the analysis of institutions and techniques.

The April 1950 issue included the following contributions:

HERBERT BUTTERFIELD: The Tragic Element in Modern International Conflict

J. K. GALBRAITH: European Recovery: The Longer View

HEINZ SAUERMAN: The Consequences of the Currency Reform in Western Germany

M. A. FITZSIMONS: British Labour in Search of a Socialist Foreign Policy

C. J. FRIEDRICH: The Political Theory of the New Democratic Constitutions

ELIE DENISSOFF: On the Origins of the Autonomous Russian Church

Annual subscription: Foreign, $3.40; U.S. and Canada, $3.00.

Single issue, $1.00 each
