North-South

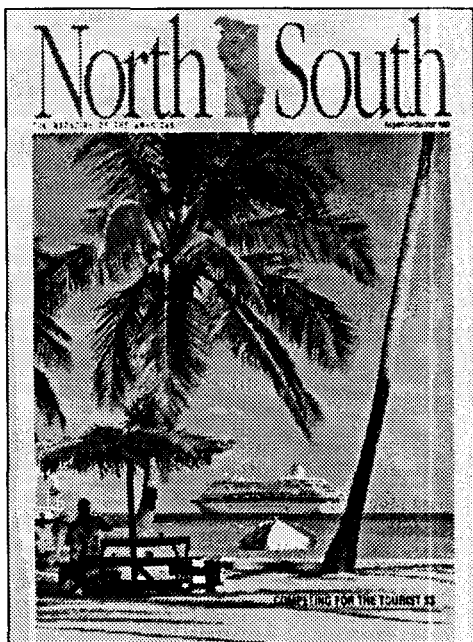

The Magazine of the Americas

North-South brings to those who need to know . . . information, analysis, and insight into the issues molding today's inter-American reality.

This bimonthly publication of the University of Miami's North-South Center presents a unique forum where leading area policy makers share their views of the region's most critical economic and political issues.

Regular NewsScan columns highlight contemporary events in Latin America, Canada, and the Caribbean, as well as in hemispheric business. Report from Washington and Legislative Roundup review U.S. policy and related activity on Capitol Hill.

 Subscribe today by calling the North-South desk at Transaction Publishers (908) 932-2280.

A one-year subscription is just $30, institutional $72. Postage and handling are additional for overseas subscriptions. For the Spanish edition, Norte-Sur, la Revista de las Americas, call North-South Center Publications at (305) 284-8914.

Latin American
Music
Review

Editor: Gerard Béhague, University of Texas at Austin

Latin American Music Review explores the historical, ethnographic, and socio-cultural dimensions of Latin American music. Articles appear on diverse topics ranging from the music of the city of Mérida (Mexico) and the Argentine province of Corrientes to Dominican popular music in the post-Trujillo era and Haitian Vodoun music in New York City.

The 1992 edition of Magazines for Libraries calls Latin American Music Review "superlative" and says it "deserves to be widely read."
