

ALAN F. WESTIN of Columbia is on research leave for the year 1963-64.

YORK WILLBERN, Indiana University, was recently elected president of the American Society for Public Administration.

T. P. WRIGHT of Bates College has taken a leave of absence for the academic year 1963-1964 to accept a Fulbright research grant to India.

APPOINTMENTS AND STAFF CHANGES

CHARLES R. ADRIAN became chairman of the political science department at Michigan State University beginning with the spring term, 1963.

JOHN J. AGRIA has been appointed instructor in political science at Alma College, Alma, Michigan.

HENRY S. ALBINSKI, assistant professor of political science at the Pennsylvania State University has been appointed a visiting fellow at the research school of Pacific studies in the department of international relations at the Australian National University, Canberra, Australia for 1963-64.

HAYWOOD ALKER has been appointed instructor at Yale University.

ROBERT J. ALPERIN has been promoted to the rank of assistant professor in the department of government and politics at the University of Maryland.

JOHN AMBLER will become acting instructor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley) beginning with the fall semester, 1963.

CURTIS AMLUND, assistant professor at North Dakota State University, has resigned.

WILLIAM G. ANDREWS, assistant professor of government at Tufts University is spending the 1963-64 year in France as a Fulbright research scholar.

JOHN A. ARMSTRONG, professor at the University of Wisconsin, is on leave in 1963-64 for research in Europe on a grant from the American council of learned societies.

ALEXINE L. ATHERTON of the political science department of the University of Pennsylvania has been promoted to assistant professor.

IVAN AVAKUMOVIC has been appointed associate professor of political science at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver, Canada.

MORLEY AYEARST, as of September 1, 1963, has received promotion to the rank of full professor of government, and has been appointed chairman of the department of government and international relations in Washington Square College, New York University.

CHESTER W. BAIN, formerly professor and head, department of political science, University of South Carolina, has been appointed professor of political science, Emory University.

FRANK L. BAIRD, formerly of the University of Texas, has accepted appointment as assistant professor of government at Arlington State College, Arlington, Texas.

M. MARGARET BALL, Ralph Emerson professor of political science at Wellesley College, has been appointed dean of the Women's College of Duke University, and joined the department of political science as professor in the Latin American field.

JAMES M. BANOVTZ, who has recently completed his graduate work at Minnesota, has been appointed an assistant professor of political science at Northern Illinois University, DeKalb.

ARTHUR BANKS and JOHN LUNDE have been appointed lecturers in government at Indiana University.

WILLIAM S. BARNES, director of Latin American studies at Harvard University, has been appointed professor of Latin American affairs, at the Fletcher School of law and diplomacy, Tufts University.

ROBERT J. BATSON of Western Michigan University has been promoted to associate professor.

VACLAV BENES has been promoted to the rank of professor at Indiana University.

SYLVAN M. BERMAN has resigned his position as instructor of social science at Auburn Community College, Auburn, New York, to become instructor of political science at Kent State University.

WALTER F. BERNS has been appointed chairman of the department of government and promoted from associate professor to professor of government at Cornell University.

CONSTANTINOS L. BEROs, formerly of the University of California at Berkeley, has been appointed an instructor at Texas Technological College.

JOHN F. BIBBY, formerly at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, has joined the department of political science, Northern Illinois University, as an assistant professor.

JOE H. BINDLEY of Knox College has been promoted to the rank of associate professor.

DAVID A. BINGHAM, formerly of the bureau of business and public research, University of Arizona, has accepted an appointment as associate professor of government and research specialist, institute of government research, University of Arizona.

LOURENCE R. BIRNS has received an appointment as assistant professor at Hamilton College for the year 1963-64.

THOMAS C. BLAISDELL, JR., has retired as professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley) but has been reappointed for the 1963-64 academic year.

WILLIAM J. BLOCK has been promoted to the rank of professor at North Carolina State of the University of North Carolina at Raleigh.

ALLAN D. BLOOM, formerly of Yale University, has been appointed assistant professor of government, beginning in the fall of 1963, at Cornell.

WALTER H. BLUME, has been appointed to the staff of the department of government and politics in the Atlantic program of the University of Maryland.

EDGAR M. BOTTOMBE has been appointed instructor in government at Boston University.

DON RAMSEY BOWEN, has been appointed assistant professor at Western Reserve University for September, 1963.

JEROME BOIME, has joined the faculty of Lewis and Clark College.

ROBERT L. BRADFORD, instructor of government at the University of New Hampshire, has been appointed assistant professor of political science at Susquehanna University, Selingsrove, Pennsylvania.

CECIL BRETT has been appointed associate professor and director of Asian studies at Monmouth College.

HENRY BRETTON has been promoted to the rank of professor at the University of Michigan.

DAVID BROOK has been appointed a lecturer in political science at Rutgers University.

DONALD BROWN, JOSEPH COOPER, MELVIN CROAN, RICHARD H. ULMAN have been promoted to assistant professor of government at Harvard.

BERNARD E. BROWN, formerly of Vanderbilt

University, has been appointed associate professor of political science at the State University of New York at Buffalo.

LOU JEAN BROWN has been appointed instructor at Northwest Missouri State College.

JOHN C. BUECHNER has accepted a position as assistant professor of political science and assistant director for research in the bureau of governmental research and service, University of Colorado.

JOHN H. BUNZEL, formerly of Stanford University, has been appointed associate professor of political science at San Francisco State College.

ELEANORE BUSHNELL has been appointed chairman of the newly created political science department, University of Nevada, Reno.

ALLAN K. BUTCHER has been appointed instructor of government at Southwest Texas State College.

BYRUM CARTER has been appointed director of graduate studies, department of government, Indiana University.

MARK CATES has been appointed assistant professor at Wisconsin State College, Stevens Point.

EDWIN T. CHAPMAN has been appointed lecturer in political science at the University of Michigan.

WARNER CHAPMAN, Indiana University, has been appointed associate dean of the college of arts and sciences effective with the 1963-64 academic year.

HAROLD W. CHASE of Minnesota will be visiting professor of public law at Columbia for the academic year, 1963-64.

REO M. CHRISTENSON, Miami University, Ohio, has been promoted to full professor.

TADEUSZ CIEPLAK has been appointed visiting professor of political science at Pennsylvania State University.

DOROTHY I. CLINE, associate professor of government at the University of New Mexico has been appointed to the Metro-Urban research committee of the Western Political Science Association.

M. W. R. COLLINS, JR., is executive director of the Georgia Governor's commission for efficiency and improvement in government. He has also been re-appointed to the industrial development council of the Georgia State chamber of commerce.

JAMES K. COLEMAN, professor and chairman of the political science department at The Citadel, has retired after forty-three years of service.

MILTON COLVIN has become chairman of the department of political science at Washington and Lee University, replacing Harvey Wheeler who will stay on with the center for the study of democratic institutions at Santa Barbara, California.

GEORGE A. CONDON has accepted an appointment as an assistant professor of political science at Washington State University, effective September, 1963.

PHILIP CONVERSE has been appointed associate professor of political science at the University of Michigan.

MARY MARGARET CONWAY has been appointed lecturer in government and politics at the University of Maryland.

RITA W. COOLEY has received promotion to the rank of full professor of government at New York University, as of September 1, 1962.

RICHARD COX joined the faculty of the University of Buffalo, department of political science, in the fall of 1963.

PATRICIA E. CUNNEA has been promoted to an assistant professor at Washington State University.

RICHARD DALE, instructor of government at the University of New Hampshire, has been appointed assistant professor of political science at Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, Illinois.

MICHAEL DANIELSON has accepted appointment as assistant professor of politics and public affairs at Princeton University.

J. CLARENCE DAVIES III joined the department of government at Bowdoin College in September where he became the director of the bureau for research.

JAMES DAVIES, formerly at the California Institute of Technology, has been appointed professor of political science at the beginning of the academic year 1963-64 at University of Oregon.

PAUL S. DAVIS, research associate at the institute of war and peace studies at Columbia University, has been appointed associate director of the institute of international studies at the University of South Carolina.

ELMER A. DESHAZO has been promoted to associate professor of government at Southwest Texas State College.

ALFRED DIAMANT has been promoted to full professor of political science at Haverford College and has become chairman of the department.

ROBERT H. DIX has been promoted to assistant professor at Yale University.

MARION E. DORO, assistant professor of government at Connecticut College has been appointed by the University of Chicago to a one-year teaching-research post at Makerere University College in Kampala, Uganda, beginning July 1.

WILLIAM A. DOUGLAS of the U. S. educational foundation in Seoul, Korea, has been appointed an instructor in the department of international studies at the University of South Carolina.

ROBERT L. DRAKE, formerly of the University of New Hampshire, has been appointed assistant professor of political science at Baldwin-Wallace College.

SYDNEY DUNCOMBE, has been promoted to assistant professor at the University of Idaho.

J. STEFAN DUPRÉ has resigned as assistant professor of government at Harvard to accept an appointment as associate professor at University College, University of Toronto.

MARIO EINAUDI, who retired as chairman of the department of government, has been named the first Walter S. Carpenter, Jr. Professor of international and comparative politics at Cornell University.

MARTIN B. DWORKIS, professor of public administration at New York University has been appointed a member of the regional director's staff, U. S. civil service commission.

DONALD L. FAIRCHILD, assistant professor of political science at The Citadel has received a second-year grant from the Danforth Foundation to continue his study at the University of California.

DANIEL E. FARLOW has been promoted to assistant professor of government at Southwest Texas State College.

DAVID G. FARRELLY of UCLA will serve as director of the University of California Center in Padua, Italy during 1963-64 and 1964-65.

GEORGE FEAVER has been appointed assistant professor in the department of political science, Mount Holyoke College.

HERMAN FINER, University of Chicago, became professor emeritus on October 1, 1963, after having been on the faculty since 1946.

DAVID FINLEY has been appointed to the position of instructor at Colorado College.

GEORGE FISCHER served as exchange professor in Moscow and Leningrad in 1962-63.

JOHN P. FLANIGAN, formerly of Fordham, has been named assistant professor at Duquesne University.

MARTIN FLEISHER, has been appointed visiting assistant professor at the New School for Social Research.

MONA FLETCHER, professor of political science has retired from her position at Kent State University as of June 15, 1963 after having served in that department since 1924.

WILLIAM J. FOLTZ has been promoted to assistant professor at Yale University.

ISAIAH FRANK, deputy assistant secretary for economic affairs in the U. S. Department of State, has been appointed William L. Clayton professor of international economic relations at the Johns Hopkins school of advanced international studies in Washington.

RICHARD B. FRIEDMAN, formerly of Kenyon College, has been appointed instructor of political science at the University of Pittsburgh.

CHARLES E. FRYE has been appointed lecturer in political science at Bryn Mawr College.

EDGAR S. FURNISS, JR., formerly of Princeton, joined the faculty of the Ohio State University as of September, 1963, as Mershon professor of political science. He will also serve as director of the social science program of the Mershon center for education in national security.

JACK B. GABBERT of Washington State University has been promoted to an assistant professor.

WILLIAM GABLE has been promoted to the rank of associate professor at the University of Michigan.

FREDERICK H. GAREAU, formerly of the University of Mississippi, has been appointed assistant professor of government at the Florida State University.

WILLIAM R. GARNER, formerly of University of Southwestern Louisiana, has become assistant professor of government at North Texas State University.

CHARLES GATI has been appointed assistant professor of Union College and University (Schenectady).

LOUIS C. GAWTHROP of the political science department of the University of Pennsylvania has been promoted to assistant professor.

JURGEN K. GEBHARDT, North Atlantic treaty organization visiting professor of political science from the University of Munich will remain at Western Reserve University.

MICHAEL GEHLEN, formerly of the University of Texas has accepted appointment as assistant professor of political science at Oregon State University, Corvallis, Oregon.

ROBERT S. GETZ, formerly assistant instructor at Rutgers University joins the faculty of Kent State University with the rank of instructor.

JOHN S. GIBSON, presently chairman of the division of liberal arts and director of development, Babson institute, Wellesley, Massachusetts, and former executive director of the world affairs council, Boston, has been appointed associate professor of government and senior associate director at the Lincoln Filene center for citizenship and public affairs, Tufts University.

JUANITA M. GIBSON has resigned her position as associate professor of government at the Florida State University to serve as administrative assistant to Florida secretary of state Tom Adams.

JOHN S. GORDON, has been appointed instructor in government at Clemson College.

HARRY A. GREEN, formerly of Middle Tennessee State College, has been appointed research associate in the institute of governmental research and assistant professor in the department of government of the Florida State University.

JOHN HENDERSON GILBERT has been appointed to an instructorship at North Carolina State of the University of North Carolina at Raleigh.

MARTIN GRUBERG has been appointed an assistant professor of political science at Wisconsin State College (Oshkosh), effective September, 1963.

DARRELL P. HAMMER has been promoted to assistant professor at Indiana University.

DANIEL GOLDRICH, formerly at Michigan State University, was appointed associate professor of political science and research associate, institute of community studies, University of Oregon.

JOSEPH M. GOLDSSEN became head of the social science department of the RAND Corporation on June 10, 1963.

HENRY F. GOODNOW has been appointed associate professor and is serving as acting chairman of the department of political science of the University of Colorado during the 1963-64 year.

LEON GORDENKER has been promoted to the rank of associate professor in the department of politics, Princeton University.

DANIEL R. GRANT of Vanderbilt University has been promoted to the rank of professor of political science.

HARRY A. GREEN has joined the institute of governmental research, Florida State University. He was formerly an assistant professor of political science at Middle Tennessee state college.

PHILIP GREEN, formerly an instructor in the department of politics, Princeton University has been appointed assistant professor of political science at Haverford College for the academic year 1963-64.

DAVID GREENSTONE has been appointed assistant professor of political science at the University of Chicago. He is spending the academic year 1963-64 at Makerere College in Uganda under a State Department contract with the University of Chicago.

ROBERT W. GREGG has been appointed assistant professor of political science at Syracuse University. In addition to teaching, he will be working in the Maxwell school's new international organization research program.

JAMES F. GUYOT has been appointed assistant professor at UCLA.

MORTON HALPERIN has been made assistant professor of government at Harvard. He is currently on leave at the London School of economics.

ARTHUR HANHARDT, formerly at Northwestern University was appointed assistant professor of political science at the University of Oregon, beginning 1963-64.

FRED A. HARGADON has been appointed instructor in the department of political science at Swarthmore College for the academic year 1963-64.

ROBERT J. HARRIS has been appointed professor of political science and dean of the faculty of arts and sciences at the University of Virginia, effective July 1, 1963.

HORACE V. HARRISON was promoted to the rank of full professor in the department of government and politics, at the University of Maryland, as of July 1, 1963.

BRETT HAWKINS, formerly of Vanderbilt, has accepted a position as assistant professor of political science at Washington and Lee University.

JAMES J. HEAPHEY has accepted an appointment as assistant professor of political science at the University of Pittsburgh.

ROBERT D. HEIDORN has been appointed instructor of government as of September 1, 1963, in the department of history and government at the University of Maine.

RICHARD B. HENDERSON has been named professor of government and director of the social sciences division at Southwest Texas State College.

CARY S. HENDERSON, formerly of Auburn, New York, Community College, has been appointed assistant professor of history and political science at Queens College, Charlotte, North Carolina.

KLAUS J. HERRMANN has received appointment as assistant professor of political science with the school of government and public administration, American University.

IVAN HINDERAKER resigned as chairman, department of political science, UCLA, to accept a post as assistant to the chancellor, University of California, Irvine campus.

DELL G. HITCHNER has been promoted to a full professorship, University of Washington, Seattle.

WILLARD N. HOGAN, formerly of State University college, New Paltz, New York, has been appointed professor of political science at the University of Nebraska, succeeding Norman L. Hill who has retired.

MATTHEW HOLDEN, JR., formerly of Wayne State, has been appointed assistant professor of political science at the University of Pittsburgh.

FRANKLYN D. HOLZMAN, professor of economics at Tufts University, has been appointed professor of economics at the Fletcher school of law and diplomacy, Tufts University.

JACOB W. LANDYNSKI has been promoted to assistant professor in the graduate faculty of the New School for Social Research.

HALFORD HOSKINS, senior specialist in international relations at the Library of Congress special reference service, is serving as visiting professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley) during the 1963-64 year.

THOMAS HOVET, JR. has received promotion to the rank of full professor of international relations at New York University, as of September 1, 1962.

S. KENNETH HOWARD has been appointed assistant professor in government at the University of New Hampshire.

MICHAEL C. HUDSON has been appointed instructor in the department of political science at Swarthmore College, for the academic year 1963-64.

MARY EVELYN HUEY has been promoted to associate professor of government at North Texas State University.

DELOS HUGHES has been appointed assistant professor of political science at Washington and Lee.

ERICH HULA has been promoted to chairman of the department of political science at the New School for Social Research.

WILLARD J. HUTZEL has been appointed lecturer in government and politics in the off-campus program of the University of Maryland.

HELEN H. INGRAM, has been appointed lecturer in government at the University of New Mexico.

MARIAN D. IRISH has resigned as head of the department of government at the Florida State University in order to devote her time entirely to teaching and research. She has received a senior research award in American governmental affairs from the SSRC, and was in Washington July through December 1963 as guest scholar at the Brookings Institution.

ERWIN A. JAFFE has been appointed associate professor in government at the University of New Hampshire.

ANDREW JANOS, formerly with the center of international studies and the department of politics, Princeton University, has been appointed assistant professor of political science by the University of California (Berkeley).

THOMAS P. JENKIN has resigned his professorship at UCLA to become dean, college of letters and science, University of California, Riverside.

KENT JENNINGS of the Brookings, Institution has been appointed assistant professor of political science at the University of Michigan.

MALCOLM E. JEWELL of the University of Kentucky is a visiting associate professor in the department of political science of Duke University for the academic year 1963-64.

CLAUDIUS O. JOHNSON, professor-emeritus of political science at Washington State University, is serving as a visiting professor at Montana State University, Missoula, during 1963-64.

KENNETH F. JOHNSON joined the staff of the political science department, University of Wyoming, as an assistant professor.

CHARLES O. JONES formerly of the national center for education in politics has accepted an appointment as associate professor of government at the department of government, University of Arizona.

HENRY P. JONES, University of Oklahoma, has been appointed assistant professor of political science at Hardin-Simmons University, beginning in the fall of 1963.

JOHN E. JUERGENSEMEYER has been appointed associate professor of political science at Judson College, Elgin, Illinois.

HERBERT M. KAGI has been appointed an assistant professor of political science at Rutgers.

HERBERT KAUFMAN has been promoted to professor of political science at Yale University.

ROBERT H. KEARNEY has joined the department of political science, Duke University, as an assistant professor.

ROBERT L. KEELE, JR., of the department of political science at the University of the South has been promoted to the rank of assistant professor of political science.

MALCOLM KERR has been promoted to associate professor at UCLA.

JAMES B. KESSLER has been promoted to associate professor at Indiana University.

C. I. EUGENE KIM of Western Michigan University has been promoted to assistant professor.

GEORGE KLEIN has been appointed to the political science staff of Western Michigan University.

EARL O. KLINE has been promoted to professor and chairman of the department of political science at the Citadel.

OTTO KIRCHHEIMER has resigned from the New School for Social Research.

DONALD P. KOMMERS, Los Angeles State College, has been appointed as an assistant professor in the department of political science, University of Notre Dame.

ANDRZEJ KORBONSKI of Columbia University has been appointed assistant professor at UCLA.

STANLEY A. KOCHANEK has been appointed assistant professor of political science, effective September, 1963.

WILLIAM A. KOLSTAD, formerly of the University of Texas, has accepted a position as assistant professor of government and research associate at the state university of South Dakota, Vermillion.

ALLAN KORNBERG has been appointed lecturer in political science at the University of Michigan.

LEOPOLD B. KOZIEBRODZKI, acting associate professor of economics and history at the University of North Carolina, has joined the research staff of the research analysis corporation at Bethesda, Maryland.

WLADYSLAW W. KULSKI, professor of political science at Syracuse University, has been named visiting James B. Duke professor of Russian affairs at Duke University beginning September 1, 1963.

MARTIN T. KYRE, formerly of the University of Washington, has been appointed an assistant professor at Texas Technological College.

EVERETT LADD has been appointed assistant professor at UCLA.

ATHUR LALL, former delegate of India to the General Assembly of the United Nations and to the UN 18-nation Committee on Disarmament, has been appointed visiting professor of international studies for 1963-64 at Cornell University.

KENNETH P. LANDON has been appointed associate dean of the school of language and area studies, foreign service institute, Department of State, Washington. He will direct the institute's seven area training programs.

JACOB LANDYNSKI is now assistant professor at the New School for Social Research.

ROBERT E. LANE, professor of political science at Yale University, has been appointed Ford research professor in public affairs at Yale for the year 1963-64.

JOHN J. LARKIN, professor of political science and dean of the division of liberal studies, Illinois Institute of Technology, has retired.

ALLAN LARSON has been appointed assistant professor in political science extension at the University of Wisconsin, Racine Center.

JAMES E. LARSON, formerly of the University of Alabama, has been appointed head of the department of political science and director of the bureau of public administration at the University of South Carolina.

LATHEFF N. AHMED is appointed as assistant professor of political science at Illinois Institute of Technology as of September, 1963.

RUPERT LATTURE of the political science department at Washington and Lee has retired.

LEE LAYPORT JR. has been appointed instructor in the division of social science at Santa Ana College, Santa Ana, California.

WILLARD H. LEAVEL, formerly assistant professor of political science at Wisconsin State College, Eau Claire, has been appointed assistant professor of political science at the University of Denver.

ALLEN B. LEE has been promoted to associate professor of political science at Washington and Jefferson College.

CHONG-SIK LEE, formerly of Dartmouth College, has been appointed assistant professor of political science at University of Pennsylvania.

HONGKOO LEE is a visiting assistant professor in the department of political science at Emory University for the academic year 1963-64.

OLIVER M. LEE has resigned from the legislative reference service of the Library of Congress to accept an assistant professorship of political science at the University of Hawaii.

ROBERT G. LEH has been appointed assistant professor of political science at Gettysburg College, effective September, 1963.

GERTRUDE C. K. LEIGHTON has been appointed chairman of the political science department at Bryn Mawr College.

HOWARD H. LENTNER has been promoted to assistant professor, Western Reserve University.

DAVID A. LEUTHOLD, has been appointed instructor in political science at the University of Missouri effective September, 1963.

EDWARD M. LEVINE is promoted to associate professor of political science, Illinois Institute of Technology, as of September, 1963.

E. LESTER LEVINE of the assembly reference service, State of California, will also serve as lecturer in political science (Davis).

AREND LIJPHART of Elmira College has been appointed assistant professor of political science at the University of California, Berkeley.

LEON LINDBERG, assistant professor at the University of Wisconsin, is on leave in 1963-64 for research in western Europe on grants from the Rockefeller Foundation and the American Philosophical Society.

OLIVER J. LISSITZYN has received a promotion to the rank of professor at Columbia University.

D. RICHARD LITTLE, has joined the department of political science, Northern Illinois University, as an instructor.

RICHARD P. LONGAKER has been appointed chairman of the department of political science, UCLA.

JOHN LOVELL has been appointed undergraduate adviser, department of government, Indiana University.

RONALD H. McDONALD, formerly of the University of California at Los Angeles, has been appointed assistant professor of political science at Syracuse University, beginning September 1963.

CHARLES B. McLANE, chairman of the department of Russian civilization at Dartmouth College, will serve as visiting professor on Soviet diplomacy at the Fletcher School of law and diplomacy, Tufts University.

EDWARD McWHINNEY, professor of international law at the University of Toronto, Toronto, Canada, will join the faculty of the department of political science at the University of California beginning in September 1964.

ARTHUR MAASS is the new chairman of the government department at Harvard University as of July 1, 1963.

STUART A. MacKOWN has been appointed instructor in political science at Baker University.

CLAY P. MALICK has retired as professor of political science and has been appointed professor emeritus at the University of Colorado.

LUCIAN MARQUIS was promoted to associate professor of political science at the University of Oregon.

DWAINE MARVICK is serving as visiting legislative research associate professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley) for the year 1963-64.

WARREN L. MASON has been appointed instructor in the government department at Miami University (Ohio).

NICHOLAS A. MASTERS has been appointed as associate professor of political science, at Pennsylvania State University, effective September 1963.

LOUIS H. MASOTTI has been appointed assistant professor of political science, beginning September 1963 at Western Reserve University.

CHARLES W. MAYO, formerly of the University of Southern California, has been appointed assistant professor in political science at San Francisco State College.

J. KENNETH McDONALD, assistant professor of international affairs at George Washington University has been appointed assistant director of the University's Army War College Center at Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

CARL D. MURRAY has joined the staff of the institute of governmental research, Florida State University.

J. LLOYD MECHAM of the University of Texas retired from active teaching at the end of the year 1962-63 and became professor emeritus.

RICHARD L. MERRITT has been promoted to assistant professor at Yale University.

HOWARD F. MILLER of the political science department at Syracuse University has been promoted to the rank of associate professor.

WARREN MILLER, University of Michigan, has been promoted to the rank of professor.

RALPH E. MITCHELL has been appointed assistant professor of government at Miami University.

WILLIAM MITCHELL was promoted to associate professor of political science at the University of Oregon, beginning with academic year 1963-64.

JAMES H. MOLINEU III has been appointed to the staff of the department of government and politics in the European program of the University of Maryland.

JOHN D. MONTGOMERY has been appointed professor of public administration in the graduate school of public administration at Harvard University. He will also serve as secretary of the school and a member of the department of government.

CLEMENT MOORE has been appointed assistant professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley).

GLENN G. MORGAN has been promoted to associate professor of political science, San Jose State College, San Jose, California.

BERNARD S. MORRIS of the bureau of intelligence and research, Department of State, has been appointed associate professor of government, Indiana University, Bloomington, beginning September 1963.

THOMAS MORRISON has accepted an appointment as lecturer in political science at the University of California (Berkeley).

LLOYD D. MUSOLF, formerly of Michigan State University, has been appointed professor of political science and director, institute of governmental affairs, University of California (Davis).

PAUL A. NELSON of the University of Chicago has accepted a position as instructor in political science at Middlebury College.

FRANK W. NEUBER, formerly associate professor of social science at Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, has been appointed professor of political science at Parsons College, Fairfield, Iowa effective June 1, 1963.

CHESTER A. NEWLAND has been appointed professor and director of the department of government at North Texas State University.

JAMES NYMAN, University of California (Berkeley) has been appointed lecturer in political science (Davis).

A. GAYLORD OBERN has been appointed director of the special training division, graduate school of public and international affairs, University of Pittsburgh, after four years with the Brazil Project of the University of Southern California.

A. K. ORGANSKI has been promoted to professor of political science at Brooklyn College of the City University of New York. He will serve as visiting professor of international politics at the Fletcher School of law and diplomacy, Tufts University.

IVAN V. PARKINS, formerly of Jacksonville University, has been appointed professor of government at Asheville-Biltmore College.

LAWRENCE PARKUS joined the department of government of Bowdoin College at mid-year of February 1963 replacing David Walker who left to become staff director of the subcommittee on intergovernmental relations of the Senate Committee on Government Operations.

CHARLES J. PARRISH, formerly of the University of North Carolina, has accepted appointment as assistant professor of government at the University of Texas.

MALCOLM B. PARSONS has been appointed chairman of the department of government of the Florida State University.

GEORGE S. PARTHEMOS has been promoted to professor and head of the political science department at the University of Georgia.

GUY PAUKER has resigned as associate professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley) in order to continue his research at RAND Corporation.

ANTHONY J. PEARCE was promoted to associate professor, department of government and international relations, New York University.

ROY V. PEEL, professor of political science and chairman, division of social science, California Lutheran College, Thousand Oaks, California, has resigned. He has accepted a position as lecturer in political science, with professorial rank, at San Fernando Valley State College, Northridge, California.

CLARE PENNIMAN has been appointed chairman of the department of political science at the University of Wisconsin for 1963-64.

PHILIP M. PHIBBS has been appointed an assistant professor of political science at Wellesley College.

PAUL J. PICCARD has been promoted to professor of government at the Florida State University. He is also director of the university's honors program.

EDWARD L. PINNEY, formerly of LSU has accepted a position as associate professor of political science at Washington and Lee.

JACK C. PLANO of Western Michigan University has been promoted to professor.

HYRUM PLASS has been appointed director of the bureau of governmental research, University of Nevada, Reno.

CARL F. POKE formerly of Millersville State College, has been appointed instructor of political science and assistant to the president at the Greensburg campus of the University of Pittsburgh.

ALLAN RAGAN of the political science department at Washington and Lee has retired.

WILLARD RANGE has returned from his Fulbright year in India and has been promoted to professor of political science at the University of Georgia.

MICHAEL D. REAGAN, presently serving as director of the public administration programs at Syracuse University, has been advanced to the rank of associate professor of political science.

JOHN C. REES of University College of Swansea is serving as visiting professor at UCLA for the 1963-64 period.

HAROLD V. RHODES has accepted an appointment as instructor in the department of government University of Arizona, 1963-64.

BENNETT M. RICH has resigned as professor of political science at Rutgers University to become president of Waynesburg College, effective July 1, 1963.

JOHN B. RICHARD joined the staff of the University of Wyoming as an assistant professor.

CHANNING B. RICHARDSON has become Bristol professor of international affairs at Hamilton College.

LEO C. RIETHMAYER is on leave from the University of Colorado during 1963-64 and is serving as a visiting professor in the Baruch school of business and public administration, City University of New York.

LEONARD ROBINS and SYLVIA MARGULIES have been appointed to the department at North Dakota State University, Fargo, North Dakota.

MICHAEL ROGIN, formerly assistant professor of political science at the University of Chicago who taught this past year at Makerere College in Uganda, has joined the staff of the department of political science at the University of California (Berkeley).

JAMES M. ROHERTY, associate professor in Mount Mary College's department of history and political science, is taking a year's leave of absence to fill an appointment as visiting associate professor of government at William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Virginia, for the 1963-64 academic year.

CARL ROSBERG has been promoted to the rank of associate professor at the University of California (Berkeley).

RUDOLPH J. RUMMEL has been appointed assistant professor at Indiana University.

ELMER R. RUSCO has been appointed assistant professor of political science, University of Nevada, Reno.

MYRON RUSH, staff member of the social science department, RAND Corporation, has been appointed senior fellow of the research institute on Communist affairs at Columbia University for the year beginning September, 1963.

WILLIAM A. RUST, JR. has been appointed an instructor in political science at Rutgers University.

DANKWART A. RUSTOW has received a promotion to the rank of professor at Columbia University.

GLENNA RYAN, formerly at Indiana University, has joined the staff of the political science extension department at the University of Wisconsin as an instructor.

T. V. SATHYAMURTHY has been appointed to the faculty of the University of Singapore.

ALBERT B. SAYE, distinguished alumni foundation professor of political science at the University of Georgia, has been appointed to the research group of the Georgia criminal law study committee.

WALLACE S. SAYRE has been named chairman of the department of public law and government taking the place of David B. Truman who became dean of Columbia College in February.

KARL SCHMITT of the University of Texas has been advanced to associate professor of government.

EDGAR L. SHER has resigned at the University of Chicago to take a position at Colgate University.

RONALD M. SCHNEIDER of the office of research and analysis of the State Department has accepted an appointment as visiting associate professor at Columbia for the year 1963-64.

HARRY M. SCOBLE has been appointed assistant professor at UCLA. He is serving as acting director of the Falk research program for the academic year 1963-64.

DONALD O. SCHOONMAKER has been appointed to the staff of the department of government and politics in the European program of the University of Maryland.

BRADBURY SEASHOLES, presently assistant professor of political science at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology has been appointed assistant professor of government and associate director for political studies at the Lincoln Filene center for citizenship and public affairs, Tufts University.

LESTER G. SELIGMAN, associate professor of political science at University of Oregon went on leave of absence beginning July 1, 1963 for study in Israel and to serve as visiting professor of political science and consultant to the Weismann institute of science in Rehovot, Israel.

CURRIN V. SHIELDS, professor of government, head of government department, University of Arizona, is also serving as acting director, institute of government research, University of Arizona, 1963-64.

JAMES PATRICK SEWELL who has been serving as visiting lecturer at the University College of Rhodesia and Nyasaland, has been appointed assistant professor of political science at Yale University.

JOHN SHANNON, formerly revenue advisor for the public administration service program in Liberia, has been appointed assistant professor in political science extension to teach at the Fox Valley center of the University of Wisconsin.

THOMAS M. SHEEHAN has been appointed to the staff of the department of government and politics in the Atlantic program of the University of Maryland.

JUDITH N. SHKLAR has been promoted from assistant professor of government to lecturer in government without limit of time at Harvard University.

ROBERT J. SICKELS is currently on leave from the University of Maryland to serve as assistant staff director of the president's commission on registration and voting participation.

SAUL SILVERMAN has been appointed acting assistant professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley).

KALMAN SILVERT has been granted tenure in the rank of full professor in the government department at Dartmouth.

ALLAN P. SINDLER, associate professor at Duke University, is on leave for the academic year 1963-64. He is a fellow at the center for advanced study in the behavioral sciences, Palo Alto, California.

BALJIT SINGH, Wayne State University, has accepted an assistant professorship in international relations and south Asian studies in the department of political science at Michigan State University, effective September 1, 1963.

MORGAN SLAYTON has been appointed to the staff of the department of government and politics in the Atlantic program of the University of Maryland.

BENJAMIN W. SMITH of the University of Texas has accepted an appointment as assistant professor of government at Los Angeles State College.

REED M. SMITH has resigned his position as assistant professor of political science at the Fels institute of local and state government, University of Pennsylvania to accept the position of associate professor of political science, Bradley University, Peoria, Illinois, as of September 1, 1963.

DONALD W. SMITHBURG is promoted to full professor of political science and acting chairman of the department of political and social science, Illinois Institute of Technology, as of September, 1963.

RALPH H. SMUCKLER, JOSEPH SCHLESINGER, ROBERT SCIGLIANO were all promoted to the rank of professor at Michigan State University.

HERMAN M. SOMERS, formerly of Haverford College, has accepted appointment as professor of politics and public affairs at Princeton University.

PETER SPERLICH became acting assistant professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley) beginning September, 1963.

VINCENT E. STARZINGER has been promoted to associate professor with tenure in the government department at Dartmouth.

DOUGLAS ST. ANGELO, formerly of St. Olaf college, has been appointed assistant professor of government at Florida State University.

WILLIAM STEELE, JR. has been appointed lecturer in political science at Rutgers University.

JAMES ALVIN STEINTRAGER of Louisiana State University has accepted appointment as assistant professor of government at the University of Texas.

HUGH STEPHENS, formerly of Yale University, has been appointed an assistant professor at Texas Technological College.

PAUL G. STEPHENSON has been appointed instructor in the department of political science at Emory University for the year 1963-64.

WILLIAM STESLICHE has been appointed lecturer in political science at the University of Michigan.

DONALD STOKES of the University of Michigan has been promoted to the rank of associate professor.

JULIUS STONE of the law faculty of the University of Sydney is serving as visiting professor at the University of California for 1963-64.

HERBERT STORING of the University of Chicago has been appointed Ford Foundation research professor for the academic year 1963-64.

WILLIAM F. STURNER who has been an instructor at Fordham University has joined the faculty of the University of Detroit.

RICHARD N. SWIFT has become head of all-university department of government and international relations, New York University.

IVAN TABORSKY has been promoted to the rank of assistant professor at Arlington State College.

JOSEPH TANENHAUS was promoted to the rank of full professor of government in the department of government and international relations, New York University.

CHARLES TARLTON joined the staff of the University of California (Berkeley) as acting instructor of political science in the fall, 1963.

DAVID G. TEMPLE has been appointed research associate in the institute of governmental research and assistant professor in the department of government at Florida State University.

JACOBUS TENBROEK will leave the department of speech to join the department of political science at the University of California (Berkeley).

RONALD J. TERCHEK has been appointed lecturer in government and politics in the off-campus program of the University of Maryland.

STANLEY THAMES has been appointed associate professor of government at North Texas State University.

JOHN T. THOMPSON has been promoted to the chairmanship of the department of political science at the University of Wyoming.

LADD THOMAS, formerly of Rutgers University, has joined the department of political science, Northern Illinois University, as an associate professor and coordinator of the center for southeast Asian studies.

FRED TICKNER, State University of New York, Albany was appointed professor of political science.

CHARLES H. TITUS retired June 1963 after thirty-six years with the department of political science, UCLA.

JAMES TOWNSEND has been appointed acting assistant professor at California (Berkeley).

BARBARA TURLINGTON has been appointed instructor of political science at Mount Holyoke College for 1963-64.

HILLARD J. TRUBITT, assistant professor of police administration at Indiana University, is on leave to serve as visiting assistant professor in political science extension at the University of Wisconsin during the current academic year.

LOYD ULMAN has been appointed director of the institute of industrial relations, University of California (Berkeley).

PAUL W. VAN DER VEUR has resigned his position as associate professor of government at the University of Hawaii to continue his post as senior research fellow in the institute of advanced studies of the Australian National University.

PANYOTIS J. VATIKIOTIS has been promoted to professor at Indiana University.

GEORGE VON DER MUHL has been appointed as an instructor in the department of political science at Swarthmore College.

KARL VON VORYS, formerly of Princeton, has been appointed as an assistant professor in the political science department of the University of Pennsylvania.

JOHN C. WAHLKE, formerly of Vanderbilt University, has been appointed professor of political science at the State University of New York at Buffalo.

JACK WALKER has been appointed instructor in the government department at Boston University.

JOHN WARD has been appointed to the faculty at the University of Wisconsin extension, Green Bay.

CHARLES B. WEASMER has been promoted to the rank of assistant professor of political science at the University of South Carolina.

ROBERT WELLS has been appointed instructor of political science at the University of Michigan.

THOMAS M. WATTS has been appointed as an assistant professor in the political science department of the University of Pennsylvania.

ROGER H. WELLS, a member of the Bryn Mawr College faculty since 1923, retired in June, 1963 as professor and chairman of the department of political science. During 1963-64, he will be visiting professor of political science at MacMurray College, Jacksonville, Illinois.

GEORGE D. WENDEL has been promoted to associate professor of political science at St. Louis University.

H. BRADFORD WESTERFIELD has been promoted to associate professor at Yale University.

JOHN P. WHITE, associate professor of political science at the University of Michigan has accepted an appointment as professor of political science at Arizona State University.

WAYNE A. WILCOS has been named assistant professor of government at Columbia University.

AARON WILDAVSKY, formerly with the department of political science at Oberlin College, has accepted an appointment as assistant professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley).

FRANCIS WILHOIT has been promoted to the rank of associate professor at Drake University.

PAUL G. WILLIS has been appointed professor and acting chairman for the department of political science at Drake University.

DAVID A. WILSON has been promoted to associate professor at UCLA. He also will serve as coordinator of the political change grant sponsored by the Carnegie Foundation.

JAMES Q. WILSON has been promoted to associate professor of government at Harvard University. Wilson has also been named director of the joint center for urban studies of M.I.T. and Harvard.

HERBERT R. WINTER has been appointed assistant professor of political science at Rhode Island College as of July 1, 1963.

DANIEL WIT, head of the department of political science, Northern Illinois University, is on leave 1963-64, serving on the faculty of the National War College.

ALBERT WOHLSTETTER of the RAND Corporation in Santa Monica, California, will be Ford visiting professor in governmental affairs at the University of California for the year 1963-64.

NEAL WOOD, formerly of Columbia University, has been appointed assistant professor at UCLA.

JAMES R. WOODWORTH has been promoted to full professor and named acting chairman of the government department at Miami University (Ohio).

PHILLIP WOLF has been appointed assistant professor of government at the University of New Mexico.

DENIS WORRALL has been appointed lecturer in the department of government at Cornell University for the academic year 1963-64.

FREDERIC WURZBURG has been appointed assistant professor in government at the University of New Hampshire.

W. ROSS YATES, associate professor of government and associate dean of the college of arts and science at Lehigh University has been appointed professor of government and dean of the college of arts and science.

KWANHA YIM of the department of government at Bowdoin College has been promoted to assistant professor.

GEORGE ZANINOVICH has become assistant professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley).

I. WILLIAM ZARTMAN, department of international studies, University of South Carolina, has been promoted to associate professor and appointed director of the department's graduate studies program.

ZBIGNIEW BRZEZINSKI has received a promotion to the rank of professor at Columbia University.

HARMON ZEIGLER, formerly of Emory University, has joined the department of political science at the University of Georgia, as an assistant professor.

WILLIAM ZIMMERMAN, IV, has been appointed lecturer in the department of political science at the University of Michigan.

ARISTIDE ZOLBERG has been appointed assistant professor of political science at the University of Chicago.