Defending Congress and the Constitution

Louis Fisher

"For forty years Louis Fisher has been a national treasure. His splendid new volume provides a fitting capstone to an extraordinary career."—Thomas Mann, coauthor of The Broken Branch: How Congress is Failing America and How to Get It Back on Track

376 pages, Cloth $39.95, Paper $24.95

Governing at Home

The White House and Domestic Policymaking

Edited by Michael Nelson and Russell L. Riley

"Well conceived and superbly executed, Governing at Home is a good read and a fine reference that combines the scholarship of those studying domestic policymaking with the recollections of those experiencing it in the White House."—Charles O. Jones, author of The Presidency in a Separated System

336 pages, Cloth $39.95, Paper $19.95

The Conservative Ascendancy

How the Republican Right Rose to Power in Modern America

Second Edition, Revised and Expanded

Donald T. Critchlow

Newly updated and available for the first time in paperback. Includes an entirely new chapter covering the 2008 presidential election, the 2008 financial meltdown, the first two years of Obama's presidency, the emergence of the Tea Party, the 2010 midterms, and ongoing economic problems.

400 pages, Paper $19.95

Introducing a new series:

Constitutional Thinking

Jeffrey K. Tulis and Sanford Levinson, series editors

Books in the series will develop constitutional theory beyond legalistic concerns by examining such matters as institutional development; public policy; and political behavior, culture, and theory. The editorial approach, then, favors a constitutional theory embracing the full range of activities relevant to the making, maintenance, and reform of constitutions and constitutional cultures.

Habeas Corpus in America

The Politics of Individual Rights

Justin J. Wert

"This is the best history of habeas corpus that I know of. It both confirms and extends important insights in American constitutional development, as well as providing vital information on a basic constitutional right."—Mark A. Graber, author of Dred Scott and the Problem of Constitutional Evil

302 pages, Cloth $34.95

Landmark Law Cases and American Society

Peter Charles Hoffer and N.E.H. Hull, series editors

New York Times v. Sullivan

Civil Rights, Libel Law, and the Free Press

Kermit L. Hall and Melvin I. Urofsky

"An excellent and accessible book about an important moment in American history."—Steven F. Lawson, author of Civil Rights Crossroads

232 pages, Cloth $34.95, Paper $17.95

The Constitutional Rights of Children

In re Gault and Juvenile Justice

David S. Tanenhaus

"A sophisticated and insightful account that tells the story of the last great battle in the due process revolution."—Franklin E. Zimring, author of American Juvenile Justice

176 pages, Cloth $29.95, Paper $16.95

is delighted to begin publishing

Ethics & International Affairs

for the Carnegie Council for Ethics in International Affairs

Editor-in-Chief:

Joel H. Rosenthal

Carnegie Council for Ethics in International Affairs, USA

Ethics & International Affairs aims to help close the gap between theory and practice (and between theorists and practitioners) by publishing original essays that integrate rigorous thinking about principles of justice and morality into discussions of practical dilemmas related to current policy developments, global institutional arrangements, and the conduct of important international actors. Theoretical discussions that originate in philosophy, religion, or the social sciences should connect with the interests of journalists, activists, policy-makers, and citizens who are primarily concerned with assessing and reforming specific policies, as well as existing rules and institutions such as the United Nations, the World Bank, and the International Monetary Fund; arrangements governing trade, environmental protection, and the use of force; and the International Criminal Court and ad hoc tribunals that address genocide and past societal injustices.

STUDIES IN AMERICAN POLITICAL DEVELOPMENT

Editors:

Daniel Carpenter, Harvard University

Elisabeth Clemens, University of Chicago

Scott James, University of California, Los Angeles

Studies in American Political Development

publishes scholarship on political change and institutional development in the United States from a variety of theoretical viewpoints.

Articles focus on governmental institutions over time and on their social, economic and cultural setting. In-depth presentation in a longer format allows contributors to elaborate on the complex patterns of state-society relations.

Studies in American Political Development encourages an interdisciplinary approach and recognizes the value of comparative perspectives.

Announcing STATA[®] 12

New features include:

- Structural equation modeling (SEM). Flexible extension of multivariate regression, seemingly unrelated regression (SUR), instrumental variables, and FIML and LIML estimation of simultaneous systems. Direct and indirect effects. Implemented for big datasets and big models. Maximum likelihood estimation, GMM estimation, and maximum likelihood estimation for data missing at random (MAR).
- Multiple imputation (MI). Chained equations. Imputation of continuous, ordinal, cardinal, and count variables. Imputation separately within group. Imputation and estimation for panel data and multilevel models. Linear and nonlinear predictions. Survey support.
- Multivariate GARCH. Autoregressive models of volatility. Conditional heteroskedasticity. Constant conditional correlations (CCC). Dynamic conditional correlations (DCC). Varying conditional correlations (VCC). Normal errors. Student's t errors. Prediction of levels or variances. Dynamic forecasts.
- Autoregressive fractionally integrated moving-average models (ARFIMA). Long-memory processes. Predictions. Dynamic forecasts.
- Unobserved components model (UCM). Trend, seasonal, and cyclical components. Prediction of components. Dynamic forecasts.
- Spectral density. Parametric estimates after ARIMA, ARFIMA, and UCM. Compare components. Compare frequencies. Graphs.
- Time-series filters. Decompose into trend and cycle. Baxter–King band-pass filter. Christiano–Fitzgerald band-pass filter. Butterworth high-pass filter. Hodrick–Prescott high-pass filter.
- Business calendars. Set up trading days, etc. User defined. Fully integrated. Conversion to and from regular calendar.
- Contrasts and pairwise comparisons. Compare means, intercepts, and slopes. Compare adjacent categories. Compare with reference category or grand mean. Orthogonal polynomials. Adjust for multiple comparisons. Treatment effects. Graph effects and potential outcomes.
- More multilevel/mixed models. Estimation with complex survey data.
- More data management. Excel[®] import and export. EBCDIC. ODBC connection strings. PDF export of results and graphs.
- More ROC analysis. Adjustments for covariates.
- More survey analysis. Bootstrap and successive difference replicate (SDR) weights.
- Installation Qualification. Report for submission to regulatory agencies.
- More support for multicore computers. More estimators. Up to 64 cores supported.
- Automatic memory management. Up to 1 terabyte of memory.
