

A pretty poor advertisement.

That's what she said. "A pretty poor advertisement for the Catholic Church. Goes to Mass every Sunday, of course, but you should hear the off-colour stories he tells in the White Hart on Saturday night. Of course, I'm not much of a church-goer myself, but at least I'm not a hypocrite."

Maybe there are not so many Catholics like that. Maybe.

And maybe if he could read CONTEXT, the British Catholic Digest, every month he'd develop a sharper insight into the sort of behaviour you expect from a Catholic.

A year's subscription costs twelve shillings, and there is no charge for postage to any part of the world.
