

BREWER PRIZE CONTEST

The American Society of Church History is pleased to announce a new competition in 1983 for a booklength manuscript in church history. The award will consist of a subsidy of $2,000.00 to assist the author in the publication of the manuscript. The winning manuscript shall be published in a manner acceptable to the Society, and have printed on its title page, "The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize Essay of the American Society of Church History." If competing essays are otherwise of equal quality, preference will be given to those topics relating to the history of Congregationalism.

Complete manuscripts in final form, fully annotated, must be received by William B. Miller, Secretary, American Society of Church History, 305 East Country Club Lane, Wallingford, PA 19086, by 15 December 1983, with return postage included.

The award will be announced at the spring meeting of the Society in 1984.

The 1982 winner of the Brewer Prize was "The Metaphysical Confederacy: James Henley Thornwell and the Synthesis of Southern Values," by James O. Farmer, Jr.
