BOOKS RECEIVED

All books sent for review are deposited in our Joint Library of the Hellenic and Roman Societies, so that they are as widely available as is possible. Reviewers do not keep their review copies and are not remunerated in any other way. Full, cumulative monthly lists of accessions are to be found via our website, where the websites and marketing department contact details of the publishers who send us review copies are also to be found. The Hellenic Society gratefully acknowledges all such books received in the past year.

THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROMOTION OF HELLENIC STUDIES

SENATE HOUSE, MALLET STREET, LONDON WC1E 7HU

The Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies was founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history, art and archaeology in the ancient, Byzantine and modern periods. Membership is open to all and there is a reduced rate for students.

MEMBERSHIP RATES

Rates are as follows: full members £47, £46 for those who pay by direct debit; student associates £25; corporate members £200. Life membership is available at £235 to those over 65 years of age after five years' full membership. Institutional subscriptions are available from Cambridge University Press. Please consult the Society's website for further details (hellenicsociety.org.uk).

PUBLICATIONS

The Journal of Hellenic Studies and Archaeological Reports are published annually and sent to all members of the Society. Back numbers of The Journal of Hellenic Studies and Archaeological Reports may be ordered from the Society.

THE JOINT LIBRARY

The Society helps to maintain the Joint Library in conjunction with the Roman Society and the Institute of Classical Studies. Membership of the Hellenic Society allows the reader to borrow (within the UK) up to four books at a time, either in person or by post.

LECTURES

The Society arranges an annual lecture series in London, and helps to arrange other lectures in collaboration with the various local branches of the Classical Association: a programme of all these lectures is circulated in September to UK members and is posted on the website.

GRANTS

The Society aims to help those engaged in Hellenic studies at all levels, and to this end it makes grants of various kinds (further details and application forms are available from the website).

- Schools teaching Greek language, history or civilisation may apply for grants: generous donations from the A.G. Leventis Foundation have recently enabled the Society to increase the grants awarded, in number and size.
- Postgraduate students and other scholars engaged in specific areas of research may apply for grants from the Dover Fund.
- Institutions (typically, but not exclusively, universities) may apply for a grant from the Council of the Society, to fund academic conferences and other events.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE JOURNAL

Contributions should be anonymized and sent, preferably electronically, to the Editor r.w.brock@leeds.ac.uk, with the subject 'JHS', or to Dr Roger Brock, Department of Classics, University of Leeds, Leeds LS2 9JT.

A style guide and further information on submission of copy and illustrations are available on the Society's website. Books for review should be addressed to the Librarian at the Society address. The Journal does not accept unsolicited book reviews.
