

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FREDERIC DE MARTENS PRIZE (Prize instituted by James Brown Scott)

The Institute of International Law announces the Frederic de Martens Prize (4000 Swiss Francs) to be awarded in 1987 on the following subject:

PROTECTION OF THE ENVIRONMENT IN INTERNATIONAL LAW: THE RULES OF GOOD NEIGHBOURLINESS

The competition is open to anyone, except Members, Associates or former Associates of the Institute. The essays should be received by the General Secretary of the Institute of International Law: Mr. Nicolas Valticos, 22 Avenue William Favre, CH-1207 Geneva, Switzerland, no later than December 31, 1986.

The conditions of the prize will be found in the Annuaire de l'Institut de Droit International for 1981, Volume 59, Part II, pp. 297-300.