The Editor of New Testament Studies, Prof. Matthew Black, reported that the circulation of the journal was about 2,080 (of which 420 were going to members). The Monograph series was going well; four new titles were in the hands of the Cambridge University Press, eleven were with their authors, and twelve more were under consideration. M. l'Abbé J. Carmignac was appointed to the Editorial Board for four years in place of Prof. J. Duplacy, and Prof. W. D. Davies' membership was continued for one extra year to enable him to continue the assistance he was giving to the Editor.

The Society was entertained to a civic reception by the Lord Mayor of Amsterdam in the Rijksmuseum on Tuesday, 24 August, and to an academic reception by the Rector Magnifici of the University of Amsterdam, the Free University of Amsterdam and the University of Leiden at Leiden on Thursday, 26 August. On 27 August a number of members took part in an enjoyable excursion to the cities of Delft, Schoonhoven and Gouda.

The Society's 27th General Meeting will be held at the Claremont Colleges, California from 28 August to 1 September 1972. This meeting will be followed immediately by the Congress of Learned Societies in the Field of Religion which is planned to take place in Los Angeles from 1 to 6 September. Through the generosity of various bodies in America, substantial financial help is being given to members from Europe to enable them to attend the meetings. R. S. BARBOUR
