The Pain of Christ

By GERALD YANN, O.P.

This book is composed of a course of Lenten sermons preached in Westminster Cathedral to which has been added The Sorrow of God, which originally appeared as an Aquinas Paper and has long been out of print. By relating man's sorrow to the sorrow of God and man's pain to the pain of Christ, Fr Yann illuminates a subject which has in recent years been given wide consideration as the problem of pain and suffering. In the opening lines of this book its author points to the Christian solution of this problem when he writes: 'The history of mankind is a love-story. . . . And the climax of that story begins in a garden in Gethsemani.'
