

FUTURES is the pre-eminent international journal concerned with the study of long-range planning in business and government, and forecasting the medium- to long-term future in science and technology and the social, political and economic worlds.

FUTURES publishes primary research papers, prospective and comment articles, book reviews, news and reports. The authorship and readership are international. Both are drawn from:
government; business management; industrial R and D; operational research; political, economic and social sciences; defence studies and international relations; corporate planning; policy/decision-making analytical studies.

FUTURES

the journal of forecasting and planning

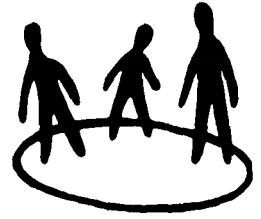

FUTURES is published bi-monthly by Butterworth Scientific in conjunction with the Institute for the Future, USA

For a sample copy of the journal, or for further details on coverage and information about submissions, contact Peter Lake, Butterworth Scientific Ltd, PO Box 63, Westbury House, Bury Street, Guildford, Surrey GU2 5BH, UK.

(Tel: 0483 300966; 859556 SCITEC G).

Journal of Peace Research

An interdisciplinary and international quarterly of scholarly work in peace research

Vol. 25 No. 1 March 1988

Focus On:

- Johan Galtung: What if the Devil Were Interested in Peace Research?

Articles:

- Marek Thee: The Pursuit of a Comprehensive Nuclear Test Ban
- Marvin S. Soroos: Global Interdependence and the Responsibilities of States
- Patrick James & Michael Brecher: Stability and Polarity
- Henk W. Houweling & Jan G. Siccama: Compulsory Escalation
- Efraim Karsh: International Co-operation and Neutrality
- Jack D. Salmon: Can Non-violence Be Combined with Military Means for National Defense?
- Douglas G. Bond: The Nature and Meanings of Nonviolent Direct Action
- Alvin M. Saperstein: Provoking a Discussion on Non-provocative Defense
- Wilhelm Agrell: Peace Research as the Good Guys' Rand Corporation?

Review Essay:

- Petter Nore: The Death of Regulation in International Economic Relations

To: Norwegian University Press
PO Box 2959 Tøyen, 0608 Oslo 6, Norway

Journal of Peace Research
ISSN 0007-5035

Please enter my/our subscription to Journal of Peace Research

Rates 1988 (postage included)

Nordic countries only: Institutions NOK 330.-

Individuals NOK 270.-

All other countries: Institutions USD 55.00

Individuals USD 45.00

(Single issues: NOK 100,-/USD 17.00 plus postage)

Airmailed to subscribers in the Americas

Name:

Address:

Individuals must order direct from publisher

Cheque enclosed Please send invoice

UNESCO coupons accepted

1/88 206 B

EEPS

Eastern European Politics and Societies

Forthcoming in 1988:

- A Special Issue on Contemporary Economic Problems in Eastern Europe
- Review Essays by Keith Hitchins about the new Hungarian history of Transylvania and by Ivan Szelenyi on the work of Pavel Câmpeanu, Romania's foremost analyst of contemporary socialism
- Articles on Political and Social Issues by:
Jerzy Kolankiewicz on permissible pluralism in Poland
Tony Judt on dissent in East-Central Europe
Ferenc Feher on Eastern Europe's Long Revolution Against Yalta
- Articles on Economics:
Paul Hare on the history of economic reform in Hungary
Charles Bukowsky on the prospects for economic reform in Yugoslavia

Published three times a year. Subscriptions: $25 individuals; $40 institutions (outside USA, add $3). Send orders to: University of California Press, Journals Department, Berkeley, California 94720

University of California Press

POLITICS AND ECONOMICS AROUND THE GLOBE

OPENING FINANCIAL MARKETS

Banking Politics on the Pacific Rim

By LOUIS W. PAULY. Pauly explores the reasons behind the retreat of protectionist policies in domestic banking systems, examining case histories of regulatory policy making in Canada, the United States, Japan, and Australia—four countries that frame the Pacific Rim, a region emerging as the financial linchpin of the international economy. $29.95

THE MISUNDERSTOOD MIRACLE

Industrial Development and Political Change in Japan

By DAVID FRIEDMAN. Mainstream scholarship, Friedman asserts, has misunderstood the basis for the miraculous growth of Japanese industry. He claims that Japan has succeeded because of the expansion of small manufacturers, constant product innovation, and the ability of specialty firms to be flexible to meet the needs of changing markets. $12.95 paper, $39.95 cloth

LABOR DIVIDED

Austerity and Working-Class Politics in Contemporary Italy

By MIRIAM A. GOLDEN. Examining the Italian labor movement in the late 1970s and early 1980s, Golden seeks to determine how trade unions set policy positions and strategic agenda in a rapidly changing economic and political environment. $31.50

THE STATE AND AMERICAN FOREIGN ECONOMIC POLICY

Edited by G. JOHN IKENBERRY, DAVID A. LAKE, and MICHAEL MASTANDUNO.

This collection of essays, originally published as a special issue of International Organization, provides a theoretical reevaluation of the forces at work in national policy making and presents evidence that the effectiveness of the national government in shaping U.S. policy has been greatly underestimated. $9.95 paper, $29.95 cloth

Call 1-800-666-2211 for credit card orders.

REASONS OF STATE

Oil Politics and the Capacities of American Government

By G. JOHN IKENBERRY. "By analyzing sequences of choices in a policy area at the intersection of domestic and international politics, Ikenberry breaks new ground in the exploration of the institutional foundations of state action."—Theda Skocpol, Harvard University. $10.95 paper, $31.50 cloth

COLLAPSE OF AN INDUSTRY

Nuclear Power and the Contradictions of U.S. Policy

By JOHN L. CAMPBELL. "Campbell shows that nuclear power died before the appearance of the diseases that supposedly killed it: energy conservation, accidents, or protests. He goes beyond the easy explanations of our nuclear power debacle to identify the basic constraints of our industrial dynamics."—Charles Perrow, Yale University. $11.95 paper, $32.50 cloth

CORPORATISM AND THE RULE OF LAW

A Study of the National Recovery Administration

By DONALD R. BRAND. Tracing the intellectual origins of Franklin Roosevelt's National Recovery Administration (NRA) to pragmatism and its political origins to progressivism, Donald Brand argues that the NRA was an ambitious attempt to secure social justice for the organizationally disadvantaged in American society. $12.95 paper, $39.95 cloth

POWER, PROTECTION, AND FREE TRADE

International Sources of U.S. Commercial Strategy, 1887-1939

By DAVID A. LAKE. Why do nations so frequently abandon unrestricted international commerce in favor of trade protectionism? Lake addresses this question and offers a systemic approach to trade strategy which builds upon the interaction between domestic and international factors. $29.95

C O R N E L L

CORNELL UNIVERSITY PRESS
124 Roberts Place, Ithaca, NY 14850

State and Revolution in Finland

RISTO ALAPURO

"Alapuro offers an adept, lucid, and original analysis of class struggle and political change in small countries. His analysis is rich with implications for the contemporary world. Theoretically alert without resort to pomp or jargon, his book provides a remarkable synthesis of recent efforts to understand the connections between domestic politics and the international system."

—Charles Tilly, New School for Social Research $32.50

Political Power and the Arab Oil Weapon

The Experiences of Five Industrial Nations

ROY LICKLIDER

How do states influence one another? Can economic sanctions force governments to change important policies? Did the Arab oil weapon of 1973-1974 change the foreign policies of the industrial democracies toward Israel? Using new sources and confidential interviews, Licklider probes the behavior of the industrial democracies toward the Arab-Israeli dispute during the 1970s, focusing on five countries that varied widely in their dependence on Middle Eastern oil, their relations with the Arab states, and their potential influence on Israel. $38.50
Studies in International Political Economy

Prosperity and Upheaval

The World Economy 1945-1980

HERMAN VAN der WEE

New in paper—"A monumental book, in which the author surveys masterfully, yet with a light touch, the whole of the world's economic development from the end of the war to c. 1980."—Economic History Review

"Clearly written and translated and accessible to a wide audience."

—The Journal of American History

"A useful survey of the theories of economic growth and development. It will also be valuable in broadening the perspective of Americans, since Van der Wee . . . has a European orientation."—Library Journal $14.95

History of the World Economy in the Twentieth Century

At bookstores or call toll-free 800-822-6657. Visa & MasterCard only.

University of California Press • Berkeley 94720

It's our 40th anniversary and we're giving out gifts. . .

WORLD POLITICS

A Quarterly Journal of International Relations

Since 1948 World Politics has provided timely, thoughtful articles in international relations, foreign policy, comparative politics, and political theory—and in history, economics, sociology, and military affairs as well.

Not long after our 25th anniversary, World Politics was ranked first among 63 journals in a national survey of political scientists.

If you're not reading World Politics, it's time to start. Use the coupon below to request a free copy—or start your subscription now and get the current issue at no charge. (If you don't use the coupon, please mention our 40th anniversary special offer when you write.) Do it soon. This offer expires May 31, 1989.

World Politics is sponsored by the Center of International Studies at Princeton University.

- Please send me a free copy of World Politics.
 Please send me a free copy of World Politics and enter my subscription to this quarterly journal.

Name/Title _____

Address _____

U.S./Canada
____ Individual ($18.00/year)*
____ Institution ($27.50/year)

Foreign
____ Individual ($22.50/year)
____ Institution ($34.00/year)

Mail to: World Politics, c/o Princeton University Press,
3175 Princeton Pike, Lawrenceville, NJ 08648

* Individual subscription orders should be accompanied by a check or money order.

 Please add $5.00 for foreign postage and handling.

A Journal of Political and Economic Affairs

Sponsored by the World Peace Foundation
Edited at Stanford University
Published by The MIT Press