Jonathan Edwards at Home and Abroad
Historical Memories, Cultural Movements, Global Horizons

Edited by David W. Kling and Douglas A. Sweeney

In this major contribution to the study of one of America's best-known and most-imposing religious figures, fifteen scholars offer a sustained analysis of Jonathan Edwards's historical legacy throughout the world. The first collection of essays to focus primarily on Edwards's lasting influence, Jonathan Edwards at Home and Abroad is also the only volume to date to focus on the enduring effects of his writings world-wide. This collection moves the discussion beyond the borders of the United States and considers Edwards's impact on the larger world.

THE STORY OF CHRISTIANITY FROM BIRTH TO GLOBAL PRESENCE

Jakob Balling

"In this book we see Christianity as it should be seen, as part of the landscape, shaped by it but also sculpting it as it flows along. Further, Jakob Balling follows the river from its sources and tributaries to its world-wide extent today. A fine, readable, and balanced treatment of Christian history." — HARVEY COX

ISBN 0-8028-3944-4 · 304 pages
paperback · $26.00

BACKGROUNDS OF EARLY CHRISTIANITY

Third Edition

Everett Ferguson

This expanded and updated edition includes revisions of Ferguson's original material, updated bibliographies, and fresh discussions of first-century social life, of Gnosticism, and of the Dead Sea Scrolls and other Jewish literature.

ISBN 0-8028-2221-5 · 672 pages
paperback · $36.00

ROMAN WIVES, ROMAN WIDOWS

The Appearance of New Women and the Pauline Communities

Bruce W. Winter

"Bruce Winter draws on a wide range of classical and Christian sources to illuminate both Roman society and early Christian society. Placing New Testament texts in the wider social and cultural setting of the Mediterranean in early imperial Roman times, he makes a highly readable contribution to recent scholarship that is bringing about closer integration of Roman and early Christian studies, to the benefit of both." — BERYL RAWSON

ISBN 0-8028-4971-7 · 254 pages
paperback · $26.00

Myths America Lives By

RICHARD T. HUGHES

Foreword by Robert N. Bellah

Hughes identifies five key myths that lie at the heart of the American experience—the myths of the Chosen Nation, Nature's Nation, Christian Nation, Millennial Nation, and Innocent Nation. As an example of the harm canonizing these myths as absolute truths can cause, he argues that the Innocent Nation myth prevented many Americans from understanding the complex motivations of the 9/11 terrorists. Hardcover, $29.95

All Things Human

Henry Codman Potter and the Social Gospel
in the Episcopal Church

MICHAEL BOURGEOIS

"Combining first-rate scholarship with lucid writing, Bourgeois has produced the first in-depth study of this key player in American Episcopal life." — Charles Lippy, author of Twentieth-Century Shapers of American Popular Religion
This book studies Potter's life and work, examining his career in the Episcopal church as well as the origins and legacy of his progressive social views.

Studies in Anglican History · Hardcover, $34.95

Didymus the Blind and His Circle in Late-Antique Alexandria

Virtue and Narrative in Biblical Scholarship

RICHARD A. LAYTON

"This book retrieves an important Christian thinker from neglect and obscurity. Layton's use of primary texts is exemplary, and his book makes a major contribution to several areas of scholarship—historical, theological, and philosophical."
— David Brakke, author of Athanasius and Asceticism

Contested Christianity

The Political and Social Contexts of Victorian Theology

by Timothy Larsen

Timothy Larsen is Associate Professor of Theology at Wheaton College

Larsen presents to us
the landscape of Victorian Britain:
that religious ideas have social and political consequences, that developments in biblical criticism are best understood when the contributions of popular radicals are included in the conversation, and that Protestant Nonconformists played an important part in the national debate of religious equality. The overall claim, as reflected in the title, is that Victorian religion was not so much declining in the face of a growing critical and secular spirit as contested through and through – from within.

This is a stimulating contribution.

Dale A. Johnson is a Bullington Professor of Church History Divinity School, at Vanderbilt University

EARLY CHRISTIAN FAMILIES IN CONTEXT

An Interdisciplinary Dialogue

DAVID L. BALCH AND CAROLYN OSIEK, EDITORS

Religion, Marriage, and Family series

"Hardly any issue is more central to the social history of early Christianity than understanding the structure and character of the ancient household. This fine collection of diverse but richly complementary studies moves the discussion of that topic significantly forward."

— WAYNE A. MEEKS

ISBN 0-8028-3986-X • 432 pages • paperback • $28.00

JESUS REMEMBERED

Christianity in the Making, Volume 1

JAMES D. G. DUNN

"Jesus Remembered is highly readable and reliably informative on the history and tendencies of critical research on Jesus. . . . Dunn's imposing work deserves attention beyond an academic readership."

— PETER STUHLMACHER

Awards of the American Society of Church History:

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize, offered annually, is a subvention fund of $1,000 to assist a press in publishing a book-length manuscript in church history. The prize is limited to first books. The monetary grant will be made upon receipt of a commitment in writing from a publisher accepting the manuscript. Entries in their final form must be received by 1 November.

The Albert C. Outler Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years in ecumenical church history. "Ecumenical" is to be construed as concerned chiefly with problems of Christian unity and disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements in any historical period. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in even-numbered years.

The Philip Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years, originating in the North American scholarly community and presenting original research on any period in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in odd-numbered years.

The Jane Dempsey Douglass Prize is an annual award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best essay published during the previous calendar year on any aspect of the role of women in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible articles and any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration. Nominations, accompanied if possible by a copy of the article, must be received by 1 August.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize, offered annually, is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent graduate whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced endnotes, must be submitted by 1 July.

A work may be submitted for only one ASCH competition. For more information, or to nominate a book or submit a manuscript, write to the American Society of Church History, Yale University Divinity School, 409 Prospect St., Box 473, New Haven, CT 06511.

Church History: Studies in Christianity and Culture is published four times per year (March, June, September, and December) by the American Society of Church History.
