The Nutrition Society has as its object the advancement of the scientific study of nutrition and its application to the maintenance of human and animal health.

Application for membership is invited from anyone whose work has contributed to the scientific knowledge of nutrition, whether such work has been in the laboratory, the field or the clinic, and whether experimental, clinical, agricultural or statistical in nature. There is also a student membership scheme with reduced subscriptions.

Particulars of the Nutrition Society and application forms for membership may be had from the Honorary Secretary, The Nutrition Society, Chandos House, 2 Queen Anne Street, London W1M 9LE.

The British Journal of Nutrition (ISSN 0007-1145) is published once every two months by the Cambridge University Press for The Nutrition Society, which owns it and controls its publication. A volume consists of three parts and two volumes appear each year.

Subscriptions to the Society's Publications. For non-members of The Nutrition Society the subscription including postage, to volumes 49 and 50, 1983, of the Journal, is £96.00 net per annum, payable in advance to Cambridge University Press, The Edinburgh Building, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge CB2 2RU, or to any bookseller. The subscription in USA and Canada is US $250.00, and inquiries there should be addressed to Cambridge University Press, 32 East 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022. Single issues are £19.00 (US $49.50 in USA and Canada); postage extra. All orders must be accompanied by payment. POSTMASTER: send address changes in USA and Canada to British Journal of Nutrition, Cambridge University Press, 32 East 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022.

A claim for the replacement of a publication lost in transmission will not be entertained unless made immediately on receipt of the subsequent issue.

Second class postage paid at New York, N.Y. and at additional mailing offices.

For details of the Proceedings of the Nutrition Society, and copying, see inside back cover.

SUBMITTING PAPERS

Papers should be sent to Dr Roy H. Smith, British Journal of Nutrition, National Institute of Research in Dairying, Shinfield, Reading RG2 9AT, Berkshire. They should be written concisely and must represent the results of original nutritional research (or exceptionally a new interpretation of existing knowledge) not previously published. Full requirements and details of how papers should be prepared are given in Directions to Contributors printed in Part 1 of each volume but authors should also consult a recent issue to acquaint themselves with the style and conventions of the Journal. Submitted papers (preferably three copies) should be accompanied by a signed statement to the effect that the author accepts the conditions laid down in Directions to Contributors.

LETTERS TO THE EDITORS

It is proposed to introduce such a section into the Journal for a trial period.

Letters are invited which discuss, criticize or develop themes put forward in papers published in the Journal. They should not (a) exceed one printed page (approximately 600 words or the equivalent), (b) normally contain any figures, (c) be used as a means of publishing new work.

Acceptance will be at the discretion of the Editorial Board and editorial changes may be required. If a letter is critical of a published paper the author(s) of that paper will be informed and given the opportunity to reply in the same issue.
