THE COMING REFORMATIONGEDDES MACGREGOR

"I am enthusiastic about this book not only because it states what it must, but because it does it so well . . . literature of the highest standard, as well as being prophecy. May it be very widely read and heeded."—British Weekly

from HODDER AND STOUGHTON*GUILT AND GRACEA Psychological StudyPAUL TOURNIER

translated by A. W. HEATHCOTE

"An acute professional eye has been at work, and its observations should be heeded. A simplicity of style and expression presents . . . conclusions that are profound."
—Baptist Times 21s

THE CHURCH AND THE NATION*Six studies in the Anglican traditionCHARLES SMYTH

A miniature history of the English Church by a man who "is at his best when writing on Church history . . . Learned erudite, and humorous, in six splendid essays, he gives us a picture of the Anglo-Saxon Church, the Reformation, the Puritans, the Caroline Church, the Evangelicals and the Tractarians.

"Read with discernment, these essays might save the Church of England of the twentieth century from any error."—The Archbishop of York

Bound 18s, Paper 12s 6d

THE GOOD PHYSICIANBRIAN O'BRIEN

The adventures of Albert Cook, the 'Grand Old Man of Uganda', make an inspiring and tremendously readable story.

Physicist and Christian

*Published in the U.S.A.
by the Seabury Press*

This important study examines the mutual interdependence of the two themes of community and knowledge, and applies its findings to the Christian attitude to science and the scientific attitude to Christianity. Dr Pollard is both a priest of the Protestant Church in the U.S.A. and the Executive Director of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies. 17s. 6d. net

Kerygma and Myth

Volume 2

An account for the English-speaking reader of the progress of the debate on demythologization. Contributors include Rudolf Bultmann, H. W. Bartsch, Karl Jaspers, Rudolf Schanckenburg, Heinrich Ott, Gustav Bronsted, and Karl Barth. 30s. net

Thomas Arnold Principles of Church Reform

"... in the days of true ecumenical conversation it is illuminating and fascinating to read this generous... literary gesture. For making it available again the editors are greatly to be thanked... the book is a treasure, and there could be few better exercises in ecumenical discussion than to take Arnold, suppose that he had written last week, and formulate your answers." British Weekly

The Sense of the Presence of God

Gifford Lectures 1961-62

JOHN BAILLIE

These are the Gifford lectures which Principal John Baillie had completely prepared, though he did not live to deliver them. He here develops the subject which he treated over twenty years ago in OUR KNOWLEDGE OF GOD, by taking account of the logical positivist, linguistic, analytic, and existentialist movements in philosophy, as well as the great changes in the theological field connected with the names of Tillich, Barth, Bultmann, and Kraemer. The fundamental issues which the discussion raises for philosophy and theology, as well as for personal faith, are here treated with all Dr. Baillie's wide knowledge, sympathy with opposing views, and clarity of expression, the whole being informed by a deep Christian faith.
