European Convention on Human Rights Law Review

Editors-in-Chief:
Kanstantsin Dzehtsiarou and
Vassilis P. Tzevelekos

The first scholarly journal devoted exclusively to the legal regime of the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR). The Review offers peer-reviewed, legal scholarship on the protection of fundamental human rights within the ECHR framework and on its implications for other regional human rights regimes. It is a forum for inter alia comparative law, human rights law, international law and philosophy of law analysis of the practice and procedures of the ECHR regime.

Elected Members of the Security Council:

Lame Ducks or Key Players?

Edited by Nico Schrijver and Niels Blokker

This book considers what role is foreseen for the elected members in the UN Charter, how this evolved in practice, and what "tools" they can deploy. It also considers whether there are particular "niches" for the elected members on the Security Council, such as engaging in conflict prevention, taking initiatives on rule of law issues and debating the potential effects of climate change on peace and security.
