

THE HOWARD JOURNAL OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Edited by Nigel Fielding and Leslie Wilkins

The Howard Journal offers articles, comments and reviews, providing a thorough coverage of both the theory and practice of criminal justice and the study of crime and criminals. The journal fills a unique role by making complex material accessible to administrators, magistrates, the police, probation officers and social workers.

Recent Articles include:

Still no Justice in Jails
P M Lawrence
Variations in Police Cautioning Policy and Practice in England and Wales
R Evans and C Wilkinson
Drug Injecting and Syringe Sharing in Custody and in the Community: An Exploratory Survey of HIV Risk Behaviour
K A Dolan, M C Donoghoe and G V Stimson

The Exclusive Economic Zone

Regime and Legal Nature under International Law

FRANCISCO ORREGO VICUNA

This new book examines the many uses of the maritime exclusive economic zone: as a protection for natural resources, an aggressive act in a dispute and as a common form of boundary control. It explores the legal basis of exclusive zones and their compatibility with modern maritime operations.

The Return of Cultural Treasures

JEANETTE GREENFIELD

'... brings style, enthusiasm, and the mind of an international lawyer to the complex historical, legal and political issues surrounding that recently named phenomenon, "cultural property" ... a book for everyone concerned about the Earth's scientific, historic and artistic heritage.'

Corporate Law and Economic Analysis

Edited by LUCIAN ARYE BEBCHUK

Using economics to identify the consequences and desirable features of corporate law rules, this book points the way forward for the economic analysis of corporate law.

A Theory of Property

STEPHEN R. MUNZER

In this book, Stephen R. Munzer argues for the justification of some rights of private property while showing why unequal distributions of private property are indefensible. The book represents a major new statement on the issue of property rights.

Deciding for Others

The Ethics of Surrogate Decision-making

ALLEN BUCHANAN and DAN W. BROCK

This book is the most comprehensive treatment available of one of the most urgent – and yet in some respects most neglected – problems in bioethics: decision-making for incompetents. The authors' approach combines a probing analysis of fundamental issues in ethical theory with a sensitive awareness of the concrete realities of health care institutions and the highly personal and individual character of difficult practical problems.
