3RD INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS ON CLEFT PALATE

5-10 JUNE 1977

THE 3rd International Congress on Cleft Palate and other craniofacial anomalies will take place in Toronto from 5-10 June, 1977. The Scientific Programme is interdisciplinary and includes 205 papers divided amongst eight specialities. There will be speciality sessions directly related to otorhinolaryngology. There will also be 84 teaching seminars, giving an opportunity for discussion and instruction on the latest methods of treatment and current problems. This Congress will provide the maximum amount of scientific knowledge for otorhinolaryngologists interested in the problem of cleft palate and other craniofacial anomalies. The entire Scientific Programme and list of teaching seminars is published in the current brochure. For a copy of this, or further information, please contact: Congress Secretariat, 191 College Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, M5T 1P9.
