

BULLETIN OF THE HEGEL SOCIETY OF GREAT BRITAIN

The Bulletin is a peer-reviewed journal that accepts articles in the field of Hegel studies. The field is broadly construed to include all aspects of Hegel's relation to the history of philosophy (see recent articles on Plotinus, Hemsterhuis, Kierkegaard), Hegelian contributions to all aspects of current philosophical enquiry (see recent articles on realism, transcendental arguments, aesthetics), Hegel and modern European philosophy, Hegel's reception history, German Idealism, British Idealism, Marx and Marxism, Critical Theory, and Hegel and literary studies (see recent piece on Ibsen).

Articles sent for consideration must be anonymised, a hard copy and an electronic copy are both required. Guidelines for prospective contributors are posted in our website. Upon acceptance, authors are sent a style-sheet, which can also be found on our website: <http://www.hegel-society.org.uk>

Please send articles and books for review to the editor: Dr Katerina Deligiorgi, Department of Philosophy, University of Sussex, Falmer, Brighton, United Kingdom, BN1 9QN. The Bulletin has a strong tradition of book reviewing in English, German, French and Italian. Publishers and prospective reviewers please contact the editor at K.Deligiorgi@sussex.ac.uk
