APSA Diversity Student Recruitment Program (DSRP)

The APSA Diversity Student Recruitment Program connects students who show interest in doctoral study with political science departments that are interested in recruiting diverse cohorts of graduate students. Departmental enrollment for the 2024-2025 academic year is now open. Departments will receive access to the student database, their PhD program linked on the APSA website, and priority registration for the Virtual Graduate School Information Fair at the APSA Annual Meeting. Additionally, if you're currently working with students who will be applying to political science PhD programs this fall, we encourage them to enroll in the DSRP (<https://apsa.wufoo.com/forms/x1qmbzbx151par2/>). Advisors are welcome to submit students to the program or students can choose to self-enroll. Enrolling in the database will assist students in receiving recruitment information from our DSRP recruiting departments.
