The Journal of Animal Ecology first appeared in 1932. It publishes the best in original research on any aspect of animal ecology. Recently it has published papers on population ecology, behavioural ecology, community ecology, physiological ecology and evolutionary ecology. Field, laboratory and theoretical studies based upon terrestrial, freshwater or marine systems are all published. The editors are keen to promote all these traditional areas and in addition would like to see an increasing number of papers in the field of molecular ecology.

The journal presently uses a data-base of 280 international referees to review manuscripts and has an average time to first decision of 6 weeks, and an average of 8 months between revision and publication.

Subscription Information

Journal of Animal Ecology is published bimonthly. Subscription prices for 1996 are £215.00 (Europe), £236.00 (Overseas) and US$380.00 (North America). Members of the British Ecological Society can receive the journal at a greatly reduced rate, and should contact the Society for details.

Journal of Animal Ecology is available on CD-ROM through EcoFile.

ORYX: NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

General Oryx publishes original articles and reports dealing with the conservation of species and habitats world-wide, with particular emphasis on those that are endangered. All submissions are reviewed by at least two referees. It is helpful if authors suggest at least one referee who is qualified to judge the work objectively.

Submissions should be sent to the Editor, FFI, Great Eastern House, Tenison Road, Cambridge CB1 2DT, UK.

After acceptance papers may be edited to enhance clarity. Where major changes have been made edited manuscripts are returned to authors before type-setting. Page proofs are sent to all authors for approval before going to press. Contributors receive two free copies of the journal and will be entitled to buy additional copies at £2.00 each, post free. Offprints may be ordered at cost price.

Contributions should be concise but informative, normally in English. Articles should be as short as possible, preferably under 3000 words, and very short articles are acceptable.

Manuscripts should be typed on one side only and double-spaced on A4 paper (208×298 mm). The left-hand margin must be at least 40 mm wide. Two copies should be submitted and authors are also invited to submit papers on disk (IBM compatible or Apple format).

Footnotes should be avoided but, if necessary, should be indicated with asterisks in the text. The author's name and postal address should follow any acknowledgements and references at the end of the article.

References in the text should give the author's name with the year of publication in parentheses. The reference list should be in alphabetical order and include the full article title.

References should be given according to the abbreviations in the World List of Scientific Periodicals. Thus:

Aveling, C. and Harcourt, A.H. 1984. A census of the Virunga gorillas. Oryx, 18, 8–13.

Hartshorn, M.G. 1983. Wildlife conservation in Central America. In Tropical Rain Forest: Ecology and Management (eds S. L. Sutton, T. C. Whitmore and A. C. Chadwick), pp. 421–423. Blackwell Scientific Publications, Oxford.

Illustrations are welcomed and ideally should be glossy, black-and-white whole-plate prints. Good colour slides are acceptable if black-and-white photographs are not available.

Line drawings and maps should be in black ink on strong white or translucent paper. Lettering on maps and figures should be sent on a separate copy of the figure along with the unlabelled original.

Captions for figures should be typed consecutively on a separate sheet.

Tables. Each table should be self-explanatory and typed on a separate sheet with an appropriate caption.

Scientific names should be underlined and not placed in parentheses. Species' names should follow a checklist, which should be mentioned in a covering letter where there is a risk of confusion.

The first time a species is mentioned its scientific name should be given. English names should be in lower case throughout except where they incorporate a proper name.
