Österreich im Zeitalter Maximilians I.
 Die Vereinigung der Länder zum frühmodernen Staat. Der Aufstieg zur
 Weltmacht

1999.
 558 Seiten, DM 128,-
 ISBN 3-486-56453-6 (ROV)
 ISBN 3-7029-0447-6 (Wien)

zum Inhalt Die stürmischen Entwicklungen der Epoche der Zeitenwende vom 15. zum 16. Jahrhundert stehen im Mittelpunkt dieser Geschichte der Vereinigung der österreichischen Länder zum frühmodernen Staat und ihres Aufstiegs zur Großmacht. Die österreichische Geschichte wird dabei nicht isoliert, sondern im engen Verbund mit der Geschichte des Reiches und Europas gesehen. Es geht in dieser Darstellung um die Vereinigung der Länder zum frühmodernen Gesamtstaat, um Verfassungskämpfe und Verwaltungsreformen und um ein innerstaatliches Einrichtungswerk, das die Regierung der von Maximilian grundgelegten habsburgischen Großmacht erst ermöglichte.

ANNOUNCES A NEW SERIES:

Austrian History, Culture, and Society

In the past, Austria was the center of a large multinational and multiethnic empire, the second-largest state in Europe and the heart of cultural development, particularly in music. At the turn of the last century, it gave birth to modern psychology, philosophy, economics, and music. In the contemporary world, Austria has played a key role between Eastern and Western Europe; serves as a model of a democratic society and of a successful economy; participates fully in the new European Union and works with its old dominions and neighbors in East-Central Europe helping them in their renaissance. In also faces many of the problems of the modern period: ethnic antagonisms, questions of women's and immigrants' rights, and the possible loss of economic and political sovereignty in the new unified Europe. This series is drawn from many of these rich aspects of Austrian life and history. For more information, contact Berghahn Books, 55 John St., 3rd floor, New York NY 10038 or visit their website:

HUNGARY
A GUIDE TO EAST-CENTRAL EUROPEAN ARCHIVES

Edited by Charles W. Ingrao

Ten reports describe archival repositories with records previously not accessible to Western scholars. Countries covered are: Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, Romania, Slovenia, Slovakia, Ukraine, and Yugoslavia.

The guide is designed to assist scholars at all levels in conceptualizing new research projects. Reports include information on the history and organization of each country's archival system as well as titles and brief descriptions of archival documents.

The guide also features handy information for ready access: telephone and fax numbers, addresses, services offered, and maps pinpointing the location of each repository.

Price: $25. To order, contact the Center for Austrian Studies.

CAS WORKING PAPERS IN AUSTRIAN STUDIES

The Center for Austrian Studies serves scholars who study the politics, society, economy, and culture of modern Austria and of Habsburg Central Europe. It encourages comparative studies involving Austria or the Habsburg lands and other European states, stimulates discussion in the field, and provides a vehicle for circulating work in progress. It is open to all papers prior to final publication but gives priority to papers by affiliates of the Center and scholars who have given seminars or attended conferences at the Center. If you would like to have a paper considered for inclusion in the series, please contact Gerhard H. Weiss or Daniel Pinkerton at the Center for Austrian Studies.
