Asian Journal of Comparative Law

The Asian Journal of Comparative Law (AsJCL) is the leading forum for research and discussion of the law and legal systems of Asia. It embraces work that is theoretical, empirical, socio-legal, doctrinal, or comparative that relates to one or more Asian legal systems, as well as work that compares one or more Asian legal systems with non-Asian systems. The Journal seeks articles which display an intimate knowledge of Asian legal systems, and thus provide a window into the way they work in practice. The AsJCL is an initiative of the Asian Law Institute (ALI), an association established by 13 leading law schools in Asia and with a rapidly expanding membership base across Asia and in other regions around the world.

Subscriptions: The Asian Journal of Comparative Law is published twice a year in July and December. The 2017 price for an online and print subscription for institutions (excluding VAT or sales tax) is $384.00 in the USA, Canada, and Mexico and £240.00 in the UK and elsewhere. The 2017 price for an online-only subscription is $319.00 in the USA, Canada, and Mexico and £200.00 in the UK and elsewhere. EU subscribers (outside the UK) who are not registered for VAT should add VAT at their country's rate. VAT registered subscribers should provide their VAT registration number.
