The Implementation of the EU Services Directive Transposition, Problems and Strategies

Edited by

Ulrich Stelkens, Wolfgang Weiß and Michael Mirschberger

The EU Services Directive is one of the cornerstones for the realization of the EU internal market and is fundamental to economic and legal experts in governments, trade and industry, as well as to the general public. This book analyses in detail the different steps taken by each of 26 EU Member States (all but Greece) in the implementation process of the Services Directive.

It provides not only detailed information about the changes in national law adopted by the Member States, but also facilitates a comparison of the different implementation strategies. It gives an insight in the heterogeneity or homogeneity of implementation concepts and shows how European legislation affects legislation that was originally nationally dominated, such as the law of national administration.

This book is valuable reading for academics interested in European and administrative law and the transposition of European directives into domestic law, as well as for practitioners and civil servants in ministries, chambers of commerce, local governments and other comparable institutions having to implement the Directive.

Ulrich Stelkens and Wolfgang Weiß are both University Professors of Law at the German University of Administrative Sciences Speyer and Ordinary Members of the German Research Institute for Public Administration Speyer, Michael Mirschberger (Ass. Jur.) is scientific assistant at the German University of Administrative Sciences Speyer.

The Cambridge Law Journal

Editor

John Bell University of Cambridge, UK

The Cambridge Law Journal publishes articles on all aspects of law. Special emphasis is placed on contemporary developments, but the journal's range includes jurisprudence and legal history. An important feature of the journal is the Case and Comment section, in which members of the Cambridge Law Faculty and other distinguished contributors analyse recent judicial decisions, new legislation and current law reform proposals. The articles and case notes are designed to have the widest appeal to those interested in the law – whether as practitioners, students, teachers, judges or administrators – and to provide an opportunity for them to keep abreast of new ideas and the progress of legal reform. Each issue also contains an extensive section of book reviews.

Freedom, Security and Justice after Lisbon and Stockholm

Edited by

Sarah Wolff, Flora Goudappel and Jaap de Zwaan

This book introduces the main changes induced by the Lisbon Treaty and the Stockholm Programme in the field of Justice and Home Affairs (JHA). The Lisbon Treaty has brought important changes to decision making at EU level, while the Stockholm Programme has set policy objectives for the next five years.

The contributions to this book assess briefly the acquis so far and elaborate on the future challenges that remain, in order to turn the area of freedom, security and justice into a reality, both for citizens and practitioners. Written by experts with different backgrounds – academics, policy makers and practitioners – they make this book a very useful tool for a broad audience, including EU officials, judges, lawyers, academics, students and police officers.

Dr. Sarah Wolff is research fellow at the Clingendael European Studies Programme, The Hague, The Netherlands. Dr. Flora A.N.J. Goudappel is associate professor of the Law of the European Union at the Erasmus School of law, Erasmus University Rotterdam, The Netherlands. Prof. dr. Jaap W. de Zwaan is professor of the Law of the European Union at the Erasmus School of Law, Erasmus University Rotterdam.
