

ATLAS of the EARLY CHRISTIAN WORLD

by Professors F. van der Meer and Christine Mohrmann, translated and edited by MARY F. HEDLUND MA and Professor H. H. ROWLEY DD.

THIS SUPERB BOOK follows the pattern set by Nelson's Atlas of the Bible. It is, as so many reviewers said of the latter, 'much more than an atlas.'

ILLUSTRATIONS 620 gravure plates, most not hitherto published, depict the lives and art of the Early Christians.

MAPS 42 six-colour maps, integrating details never before assembled and providing instant and precise information on numerous aspects of ecclesiastical and archaeological geography.

TEXT A three-fold commentary: (1) detailed descriptions of the objects illustrated, (2) the authors' own background observations, historical and geographical, (3) selected original writings of the first six centuries which reveal the motives and beliefs behind the works depicted.

INDEXES 24 pages of comprehensive indexes of persons, things and places.
14½" x 10½"                      216pp                      70s

NELSON

WHAT ABOUT BECOMING A BROTHER?

With God's help you could do much for souls and bodies by joining the Hospitaller Brothers of St John of God

For full particulars write to:

Very Rev. Bro. Provincial,
St John of God's Hospital,
Scorton, Richmond, Yorks

THE PRIEST OF THE PEOPLE

Originally published as a Double Number of The Life of the Spirit, we have now, in response to many requests, republished this most valuable symposium on the spirituality of the priesthood in a more permanent form, and the continuing demand has justified a second impression.

5s. 6d.

BLACKFRIARS PUBLICATIONS
34 BLOOMSBURY STREET
LONDON, W.C.1

Literary Distractions

By R. A. KNOX

15/- net

'Ronald Knox lacked only longevity to be a national figure. . . . Those familiar with his exquisitely emphasised enunciation will (in these essays) catch his tone of voice in every turn of phrase. Knox's genius as a translator was original and daring. In matters of faith and morals he spoke with scrupulous caution and responded humbly to criticism. In matters of language he was entirely confident of right . . . Knox himself was, as near as an artist can be, immune from faults of scholarship.'

EVELYN WAUGH in the Spectator

And Yet So New

By SIR ARNOLD LUNN

15/- net

A successor to the famous Now I See and Within that City of Sir Arnold Lunn's first years in the Church.

St Odo of Cluny

Translated and edited by DOM GERARD SITWELL O.S.B.

16/- net

St Odo is a great historical figure, judged by any standard. He was probably the greatest of the great and long-lived Abbots who gave Cluny a unique place among the monasteries of Western Europe, and the monastic reforms associated with Cluny are chiefly due to his influence. For a knowledge of early Christendom a life of St Odo and his contemporaries is indispensable.

SHEED & WARD
33 MAIDEN LANE, LONDON W.C.2

SONGS TO OUR LADY OF SILENCE

Long treasured, by those fortunate enough to possess a copy of the first edition, for their direct simplicity and lyrical devotion, these anonymous poems are now reprinted, with an additional unpublished poem, in response to numerous requests.

Illustrated 9s. 6d.

PEACE OF SOUL

Fulton Sheen

To many millions of Americans Bishop Sheen's televised talks meant a message of hope in the bewildering and menacing world we live in. The same sympathy and charity characterise this book which shows that there is a way out of the maze of despair and unhappiness so many people are wandering in.

A Universe Book

Pocket size.

Varnished paper.

2s. 6d.

BURNS & OATES