Hezbollah and Hamas

A Comparative Study

Joshua L. Gleis and Benedetta Berti

"An essential read for policymakers to help them understand not only how these organizations are structured but also how they operate and the ideas that animate them."—William Martel, The Fletcher School, Tufts University

$24.95 paper

Outlier States

American Strategies to Change, Contain, or Engage Regimes

Robert S. Litwak

"The key question it asks—how to integrate, or reintegrate countries that have separated themselves from the international community—is one that will be at the very top of the foreign policy agenda for the next administration. This is an extremely important work of political science."—Mitchell Reiss, Former Director of Policy Planning, U.S. Department of State

Woodrow Wilson Center Press

$24.95 paper

The Great Game, 1856–1907

Russo-British Relations in Central and East Asia

Evgeny Sergeev

"A monumental and readable assessment of the Great Game that makes the Russian side clearly intelligible in relation to the British."

—Wm. Roger Louis, University of Texas at Austin

Woodrow Wilson Center Press

$65.00 cloth

Justice, Dissent, and the Sublime

Mark Canuel

"Sits at the intersection of literary studies and political theory... A powerful argument for the importance of Romanticism in contemporary thinking."—Colin Jager, Rutgers University

$49.95 cloth

Of Virgins and Martyrs

Women and Sexuality in Global Conflict

David Jacobson

Jacobson takes the reader on a fascinating tour of how self-identity developed throughout history and what individualism means for Muslim societies struggling to maintain a sense of honor in a globalized twenty-first century.

$24.95 paper

Phantom Menace or Looming Danger?

A New Framework for Assessing Bioweapons Threats

Kathleen M. Vogel

"Intriguing, original, and deeply informed. Focusing on potential threats, Vogel shows in engaging historical detail that technical problems are inherently social."

—Lynn Eden, Stanford University

$30.00 paper

This Land

The Battle over Sprawl and the Future of America

Anthony Flint

with an updated introduction

"Those who truly hate sprawl and want to fight back would be well advised to read this book."

—Audubon

$24.95 paper

Religion and Politics in Europe and the United States

Transnational Historical Approaches

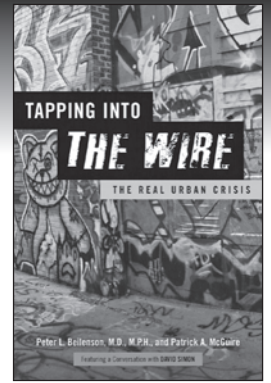

edited by Volker Depkat and Jürgen Martschukat

"A comprehensive account both of recent American as well as European research."

—Harmut Lehmann, Director Emeritus, Max Planck Institute of History, Göttingen

Woodrow Wilson Center Press

$65.00 cloth

Tapping into The Wire

The Real Urban Crisis

Peter L. Beilenson, M.D., M.P.H., and Patrick A. McGuire

featuring a conversation with David Simon

"This book will help both fans—and critics—of The Wire make connections between the stories presented on screen and how public health approaches can address vexing and seemingly intractable social problems."

—John A. Rich, M.D., M.P.H., author of Wrong Place, Wrong Time: Trauma and Violence in the Lives of Young Black Men

$24.95 cloth

Governing Health

The Politics of Health Policy • FOURTH EDITION

William G. Weissert and Carol S. Weissert

How government and private sector institutions exert political power to make health policy.

$35.00 paper

Getting to Graduation

The Completion Agenda in Higher Education

edited by Andrew P. Kelly and Mark Schneider

What will it take to achieve President Obama's higher education completion agenda?

$45.00 cloth

The Papers of George Catlett Marshall

Volume 6

"The Whole World Hangs in the Balance," January 8, 1947–September 30, 1949

edited by Larry I. Bland, Mark A. Stoler, Sharon Ritenour Stevens, and Daniel D. Holt

Marshall's two years as secretary of state remain among the most eventful in the history of both the State Department and American foreign policy in general.

1139 Review Index

Philosophy of Perspectives on Politics

Perspectives seeks to nurture a political science public sphere, publicizing important scholarly topics, ideas, and innovations, linking scholarly authors and readers, and promoting broad reflexive discussion among political scientists about the work that we do and why this work matters.

A full-length copy of the journal's editorial philosophy appears in Perspectives on Politics 8(1): 7–10 and also on the web at http://www.apsanet.org/content_44375.cfm.

Submission and Review

For submission guidelines, please see http://www.apsanet.org/content_44360.cfm.

Our editorial team discusses all submissions. Those that seem promising are evaluated by several external reviewers—with full confidentiality on both sides—and then accepted, returned for further revisions, or declined with suggestions of more appropriate venues for publication.

About APSA

Founded in 1903, the American Political Science Association is the leading professional organization for the study of political science and serves more than 15,000 members in over 80 countries. With a range of programs and services for individuals, departments, and institutions, APSA brings together political scientists from all fields of inquiry, regions, and occupational endeavors within and outside academe in order to expand awareness and understanding of politics.

The direct advancement of knowledge is at the core of APSA activities. We promote scholarly communication in political science through a variety of initiatives including publishing three distinguished journals: American Political Science Review, Perspectives on Politics, and PS: Political Science and Politics.
