Women at the Beginning

Origin Myths from the Amazons to the Virgin Mary

PATRICK J. GEARY

In these four artfully crafted essays, Patrick Geary explores the way ancient and medieval authors wrote about women. Geary describes the often marginal role women played in origin legends from antiquity until the twelfth century, probing the tensions between women in biblical, classical, and medieval myths, and actual women in ancient and medieval societies. Using these legends as a lens through which to study patriarchal societies, Geary chooses moments and texts that illustrate how ancient authors (all of whom were male) confronted the place of women in their society.

“The essays presented here are lovely little gems of textual explication based on a long familiarity with the sources for medieval history, as well as a wise fondness for the period.”—Lisa Bitel, University of Southern California

Notes for Contributors

Antiquity* aims to report new archaeological research, methods and issues of international significance in plain language to a broad academic and professional readership.

We ask prospective authors to consult previous issues of the journal and the full Notes for Contributors on our website at <http://antiquity.ac.uk/contnotes.html>.

Submissions for publication in the JOURNAL should be sent with a disc and hard copy to The Editor, Antiquity, King's Manor, York, YO1 7EP, UK, or by e-mail to editor@antiquity.ac.uk.

Text should be submitted in English in MS Word 2000 or a compatible program and have a maximum length of 5000 words. Please indicate the corresponding author. References should be in the Harvard format (Antiquity does not use footnotes or end-notes). For initial consideration, figures may be embedded in the Word file or submitted as low-resolution jpeg files, but please note our publication image requirements.

Papers submitted to the journal are peer-reviewed by two or more referees. The Editor aims to make a decision on whether the paper is to be accepted within four to six months of receipt.

Authors whose papers are declined are notified via e-mail by the editor, and we can normally pass on part or all of the referees' reports to assist feedback.

Authors whose papers are accepted may be asked to send an updated, revised text and will need to send figures of publication quality. These should be sent as hard copy photographs or drawings or as TIFF files at 600 dpi (colour or monochrome photographs) and EPS files at 1200 dpi (line drawings) on a CD-ROM or Zip disk. Colour images should be prepared in CMYK; RGB should not be used. Authors may be asked if we can mount long tables and other data on our website.

Authors will be asked to contribute towards the cost of publishing colour images. The charge is £100 per page with colour images.

Authors receive a free PDF of their paper, and may order offprints at a charge of £0.75 each (orders must be for 25 offprints or multiples thereof).

Submissions for publication in the PROJECT GALLERY on the website (<http://antiquity.ac.uk/ProjGall/>) should be e-mailed to editor@antiquity.ac.uk as attachments. Text should be in MS Word and have a maximum length of 1000 words. Figures (colour or monochrome, maximum of 6 pictures) should be jpeg files at 72 dpi. Submissions for the Project Gallery are not peer-reviewed but the Editor may request changes before a submission is accepted. Authors will be asked to check their page before it goes live online.

BOOKS FOR REVIEW

We welcome books for review on archaeology and associated research. Please send books to the Reviews Editor, Dr Madeleine Hummler, at Antiquity, King's Manor, York YO1 7EP, UK. E-mail: mrh106@york.ac.uk.

Final Report

An Archaeologist Excavates His Past

Michael D. Coe

'Final Report is really three wonderful books rolled into one: a moving autobiography, an exciting account of the rediscovery of vanished civilizations, and unforgettable portraits of the argumentative archaeologists who made these rediscoveries. Enjoy!'

Jared Diamond, author of Guns, Germs and Steel and Collapse

'Dealing with every continent but Antarctica, Final Report is caviar for the general public as well as for specialists. It belongs to that rare genre of memoirs by archaeologists ... brimming with authority, the zest of discovery and savoury anecdotes about a quirky calling' Karl E. Meyer, editor of World Policy Journal and author of The Dust of Empire

Michael Coe has worked on the frontline of a generation of archaeological discovery, research and interpretation that has profoundly altered and enhanced our vision of ancient Mesoamerica. Now, with the publication of his memoirs, the public will recognize what his colleagues have always known: here is a man of brilliance, humour and charm, who has lived his life as an ebullient adventure.

Çatalhöyük: The Leopard's Tale

Revealing the Mysteries of Turkey's Ancient 'Town'

Ian Hodder

'A brilliant tour de force by a master of archaeological theory and sophisticated analysis' Brian Fagan, author of The Long Summer and Little Ice Age

'Deploys the entire range of modern scientific techniques to probe the mysteries revealed in this extraordinary mound. Now it is possible to follow in intimate detail the lives and creations of its inhabitants' Andrew Sherratt, Sheffield University

'Wonderful ... the remarkable discoveries at Çatalhöyük unveil deep mysteries of what life was like in this early community' Ofer Bar-Yosef, Harvard University

'A fascinating interpretation of life and thought at one of the most famous prehistoric communities in the Old World' Patty Jo Watson, Washington University
