

Index

- Abacha, Sani, 89
- Abdulhasan, Mohammed, 78–9
- Abdullah Abdullah, 28–9
- Afghanistan
- legitimacy of Taliban government, 7
 - political crisis (2020), 28–9
- Albania, political crisis (1997), 95–6
- al-Qaeda, Osama bin Laden assassination (2011), 63–4
- Al-Sabah, Sheikh Jaber Al-Ahmed, Crown Prince of Kuwait, 78
- Al-Sabah, Sheikh Sa'ad Al-Abdulla, 78
- Angola, Security Council Resolution (1976), 30–1
- Annan, Kofi, 89
- Antilles. See Netherlands Antilles
- anti-piracy measures as acts of force, 60–3
- anti-terrorism. See terrorism; terrorism view of consensual intervention
- apartheid, illegitimacy of consensual intervention because of breach of, 9
- Aristide, Bertrand, 87–8, 162
- Armed Activities on the Territory of the Congo judgment (2005)
- and nature of consent, 4
 - and unlawful purposes of intervention, 15
 - legitimacy of armed intervention, 34
- armed conflict
- intervention. See armed intervention; consent to intervention
 - law of. See customs and laws of war
 - non-international armed conflicts. See non-international armed conflicts
- armed intervention. See also consent to intervention
- admissible and excusable interventions, 52
 - analytical principles and practices, 24–5
 - and laws of war, 32–7
 - and negative equality doctrine, 12–14
 - and non-intervention principle, 34–5
 - and responsibility to protect (R2P), 17
 - arming of opposition, prohibition of, 18–19
 - 'civil war' defined, 215–22
 - coercion and, 47–9
 - collective self-defence as legitimate intervention, 31, 76–81
 - controversies as to right to, 179–80
 - counter-intervention. See counter-intervention
 - democratic purposes as legitimate intervention, 86–94
 - examples, 1–3, 26–31
 - human rights grounds for illegality, 16–17
 - in a changing international legal order, 2–3
 - institutionalisation role of Security Council, 325–6
 - lack of valid invitation, 11–12
 - lawmaking role of Security Council, 326–8
 - laws of war and recognition of, 39–41
 - legal limits on, 11–19
 - limitation of, 320–5
 - limits of multilateralisation, 329–30
 - multilateralisation of consensual interventions, 250
 - negative equality doctrine and limitation of, 320–5
 - principles and practices of analysis, 24–5
 - problem of how to respond, 26–32
 - 'pro-democratic' intervention as legitimate intervention, 86–94
 - Security Council authorisation, 19–20, 95–7

- armed intervention (cont.)
 Security Council's institutionalisation role, 325–6
 Security Council's lawmaking role, 326–8
 Security Council's multilateralisation role, 329–30 Security Council's politicisation role, 328–9 serious breach of peremptory norms of international law, 17 testing of foundational assumptions of prohibition, 98–9 trialogue method of analysis, 20–1 unlawful purposes prohibition, 15–16
 use of force, 32–7, 47–9
- armed opposition groups. See non-state actors
- arms. See weapons
- Aruba. See Netherlands Antilles
- Assad, Bashar Hafez al-, 10–11, 17, 28, 84, 138, 139
- atrocities crimes. See crimes against humanity; genocide
- Austria, and Venezuelan constitutional crisis (2019), 26
- Bahrain. See Decisive Storm, operation (in Yemen (2015))
- Barrow, Adama, 2, 92–4, 164–5, 167–72, 173, 206–7, 257, 258, 267–8
- Berisha, Sali, 95
- bin Laden, Osama, 63–4
- Bonaire. See Netherlands Antilles
- Bowett, Derek, 98
- breach of international obligations. See also internationally wrongful acts
- Bush, George H. W., 79
- Canada, and Venezuelan constitutional crisis (2019), 26
- Cédras, General Raoul, 87
- Chávez, Hugo, 26
- 'civil war' defined, 215–22
- coercion. See use of force
- Cold War context of consensual interventions, 189–90
- collective self-defence. See self-defence
- Congo (Democratic Republic, DRC)
 ICJ Armed Activities judgment. See Armed Activities on the Territory of the Congo judgment
- Congo (Republic), independence (1960), 30
- consensual interventions. See armed intervention; consent to intervention
- consent to intervention. See also request for intervention; Security Council abuses of, 182 against secessionist movements. See secession (repression of) allowability of, 64–7 and law of treaties, 6–7
 and negative equality doctrine, 12–14
 and responsibility to protect (R2P), 17
 anti-terrorism. See terrorism
 as unilateral act under international law, 10
 'civil war' defined, 215–22
 Cold War context of, 189–90 competition between rival groups, 8
 counter-intervention. See counter-intervention democratic legitimacy view. See democratic legitimacy view of consensual intervention effectiveness of, 7–9
 human rights grounds for illegality, 16–17
 IDI view. See IDI view of consensual intervention incompleteness and inconsistency of international law as to, 182–4 Institut de Droit International Resolutions as to, 67–73
 lack of valid invitation, 11–12
 laws of war and, 101 legality and legal effects of consent, 175–8 legitimacy of, 7–9 loss of government's power to consent, 9–11 methodology for assessment of recent state practice, 213 nature of, 4–7
 Nicaragua view. See Nicaragua view of consensual intervention overview of recent state practice, 222–6 periods of development of theories, 187 policy consequences affect validity of consent, 181–2 power to consent, 4
 pro-democratic intervention. See pro-democratic intervention prohibition of use of force as prohibition of, 180 self-determination and, 9–10, 102, 172–5 soundness of concept of, 98

- terrorism view. See terrorism view of consensual intervention
- trialogue method of analysis, 23
- unlawful purposes prohibition, 15–16
- value of, 7–9
- volenti non fit iniuria* and, 4
- Côte d'Ivoire, presidential succession crisis (2010), 91–3, 163, 168, 173
- counter-intervention. See also Decisive Storm, operation (in Yemen, 2015)
- as legitimate intervention, 82–5
- existing legal framework as to requests for, 113–15
- invocation of consent, 115–19
- problems of claims of consent, 120–3
- Security Council involvement in Yemen crisis (2015), 123–8
- self-determination and, 85
- Crawford, James, 56–9
- Crimea, Russian operation in (2014), 1, 99
- Curaçao. See Netherlands Antilles
- customs and laws of war (ius ad bellum)
- and armed intervention, 32–7
- and consensual intervention, 101
- Decisive Storm, operation (in Yemen, 2015)
- applicability of democratic legitimacy view of consensual intervention, 248–9
- as counter-intervention, 123–8
- factual grounds of support for, 247–8
- invitation to intervene, 2, 28, 79–80
- overview of key events, 240–4
- Saudi/GCC response to Yemen's invitation to intervene, 241–4
- Security Council's view of, 244–5, 247
- supporting States' views of, 245–7
- Declaration on Friendly Relations (1970). See General Assembly
- democracy. See pro-democratic intervention
- democratic legitimacy view of consensual intervention
- applicability of, 268–69
- contemporary context of, 238–49
- Decisive Storm, operation (in Yemen, 2015). See Decisive Storm, operation (in Yemen, 2015)
- Security Council's view of, 238–49, 269
- support from State practice, 201–9
- UK intervention in Sierra Leone (2000), 239–40
- Denmark, and Venezuelan constitutional crisis (2019), 26
- dictatorial interference notion
- 'interference pure and simple'
- distinguished, 52–3
- admissible and excusable interventions, 52
- origin of, 50
- rightness of intervention, 50–2
- Dinstein, Yoram, 55, 56
- Doswald-Beck, Louise, 66–7
- DRC. See Congo (Democratic Republic, DRC)
- Dutch Antilles. See Netherlands Antilles
- Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS)
- Côte d'Ivoire presidential succession crisis (2010), 91–2
- 'pro-democratic' intervention in Sierra Leone (1997), 88–91
- Restore Democracy, operation (in The Gambia, 2017). See secession (repression of)
- El Salvador, and Nicaragua judgment (1986), 83
- Endara, Guillermo, 93
- Faller, Admiral Craig S., 27
- force. See use of force
- France
- and Venezuelan constitutional crisis (2019), 26
- Serval, operation (in Mali, 2013). See secession (repression of)
- weapons supplies to Syrian opposition groups, 84
- Gbagbo, Laurent, 91–2, 162
- General Assembly
- and prohibition of intervention, 47–8
- counter-intervention as legitimate intervention, 85
- Declaration on Friendly Relations (1970) as to legitimacy of armed intervention, 32–7, 99
- Germany, and Venezuelan constitutional crisis (2019), 26
- Ghani, Ashraf, 28–9
- Gray, Christine, 86
- Grenada, Urgent Fury, operation (by US, 1983), 55

- Guaidó, Juan, 26, 27
- Gulf Co-operation Council, 79–80. See also Decisive Storm, operation (in Yemen, 2015)
- Guterres, António, 27
- Guyana, piracy control measures as acts of force, 61
- Hadi, Abdrabbuh Mansur, 2, 28, 79–80, 116–18, 121–3, 125–6, 167–8, 240–9, 267
- Haiti, ‘pro-democratic’ intervention in (1994), 87–8
- human rights grounds for illegality of intervention, 16–17
illegitimacy of consensual intervention because of breach of, 9
- ICRC. See International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC)
- IDI view of consensual intervention
applicability of, 268–69
arguments in defence of, 255–9 ‘civil war’ defined, 215–22
contemporary context of, 250–5
other Institute work on armed intervention. See Institut de Droit International (IDI)
overview of, 188
Security Council’s view of, 231–8
support from State practice, 196–201
- IHL. See international humanitarian law (IHL)
- Institut de Droit International (IDI)
and negative equality doctrine, 12–13
‘civil war’ defined, 215–22
counter-intervention as legitimate intervention, 83
Neuchâtel Resolution II (1900), 65, 67–9
Resolutions as to consensual intervention, 65, 67–73
Rhodes Resolution II (2011), 15, 65, 72–3 unlawful purposes of intervention, 15 view of consensual intervention. See IDI view of consensual intervention
Wiesbaden Resolution III (1975), 65, 69–72, 83
- internal conflicts. See non-international armed conflicts
- International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC)
and Venezuelan constitutional crisis (2019), 28
- on consent within non-international armed conflicts (NIACs), 75–6
- International Court of Justice (ICJ). See also Nicaragua judgment (1986) allowability of armed intervention, 64–5 and prohibition of intervention, 48–9
legitimacy of armed intervention, 33–4 methodical application of international law, 41–7
- international disputes intervention. See armed intervention; consent to intervention; humanitarian intervention
- international human rights law. See human rights
- international humanitarian law (IHL),
illegitimacy of consensual intervention because of breach of, 9
- international law
breaches and violations of. See internationally wrongful acts method of application of, 41–7 norms of. See customs and laws of war; peremptory norms (ius cogens) principles of. See non-intervention principle; self-determination treaties. See treaties
- International Law Commission (ILC)
Articles on the Responsibility of States for Internationally Wrongful Acts, 55 Draft Conclusion 16 on Jus Cogens, 10 on consent and the use of force, 55–8
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), and Venezuelan constitutional crisis (2019), 27
- international organisations, and Venezuelan constitutional crisis (2019), 27
- internationally wrongful acts and legitimacy of consent, 8 non-recognition obligation as to, 17 intervention. See armed intervention invitation to intervene. See consent to intervention
- Iraq
Inherent Resolve, operation (US v. ISIS, 2014–). See Islamic State in Iraq and al-Sham (ISIS) invasion of Kuwait (1990), 78–9, 99
Islamic State in Iraq and al-Sham (ISIS) Inherent Resolve, operation (by US, 2014–), 1, 19, 80–1, 134–6

- intervening States' invocation of consent to intervention, 134–6
- invocation of consent to intervention against, 132–6
- Iraqi and Syrian governments' invocation of consent to intervention, 133–4
- problems of claims of consensual interventions against, 136–8
- problems raised by western intervention, 138–41
- Russian operation in Syria v. (2015–), 1–2, 10–11, 14, 17, 19
- Security Council's role in Iraq, 141–3
- Security Council's role in Syria, 143–5
- UK intervention against, 5
- Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant (ISIL).
See Islamic State in Iraq and al-Sham (ISIS)
- Italy, Albania political crisis (1997), 95–6
- ius ad bellum. See customs and laws of war ius cogens. See international humanitarian law (IHL)
- Jammeh, Yahya, 91–4
- Jordan, weapons supplies to Syrian opposition groups, 18
- Kabbah, Ahmed Tejan, 88–91
- Koroma, Major Johnny Paul, 88
- Kuwait. See also Decisive Storm, operation (in Yemen, 2015)
- Iraq's invasion (1990), 78–9, 99
- Lauterpacht, Hersch, 40
- laws of war. See customs and laws of war
- legitimacy of consent. See consent to intervention
- Libya, political crisis (2011–), 8, 28
- Maduro, Nicolás, 26–8
- Mali
- Serval, operation (by France, 2013). See secession (repression of)
- military intervention. See armed intervention
- negative equality doctrine, 12–14, 320–5
- Netherlands Antilles, and Venezuelan constitutional crisis (2019), 28
- NIACs. See non-international armed conflicts (NIACs)
- Nicaragua judgment (1986)
- collective self-defence as legitimate intervention, 76–8
- counter-intervention as legitimate intervention, 82–4
- legitimacy of armed intervention, 33–4
- legitimacy of consent, 7
- methodical application of international law, 41–7
- negative equality doctrine, 13
- power to consent, 4
- 'pro-democratic' intervention as legitimate intervention, 86–7
- prohibition of intervention, 48–9
- unlawful purposes of intervention, 15
- Nicaragua view of consensual intervention
- applicability of, 268–69
- contemporary context of, 250–5
- overview of, 188
- Security Council's view of, 227–30
- support from State practice, 191–6
- Nigeria
- and Côte d'Ivoire presidential succession crisis (2010), 92–3
- 'pro-democratic' intervention in Sierra Leone (1997), 89
- non-international armed conflicts (NIACs) and negative equality doctrine, 12–14
- consent within, 73–6
- non-intervention principle, applicability of, 34–5
- non-state actors
- competition between rival groups, 8
- weapons supplies to opposition groups, 18–19
- Noriega, General Manuel, 93
- opposition groups. See non-state actors
- Organisation of American States (OAS), and Venezuelan constitutional crisis (2019), 27
- Ouattara, Alassane, 91–2, 162–3
- Pakistan, Osama bin Laden assassination (2011), 63–4
- Panama, Just Cause, Operation (by US, 1989), 93
- peremptory norms (ius cogens)
- breaches of. See internationally wrongful acts
- piracy control measures as acts of force, 60–3

- pro-democratic intervention
 as legitimate intervention, 86–94 existing legal framework as to armed intervention against secession, 160–3
 invocation of consent, 160–3 problems of claims of consensual interventions against, 165–9 Restore Democracy, operation (by ECOWAS in The Gambia, 2017), 2, 91–4, 160–72
 Security Council's role in Gambia crisis (2017), 165–9
 trialogue method of analysis, 21–3
- Qatar. See also Decisive Storm, operation (in Yemen, 2015)
 weapons supplies to Syrian opposition groups, 18, 84
- R2P. See responsibility to protect (R2P)
- recognition (legitimacy) of consent. See consent to intervention
- Red Cross. See International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC)
- request for intervention
 anti-terrorism. See terrorism
 as basis for consent, 1–3, 6–7
 as unilateral act under international law, 10 counter-intervention. See counter-intervention
 illegality of, 10
 legal controversies about, 3–4 Nicaragua judgment (1986) and, 4 reasons for invitation affect validity of consent, 180–1
 sovereign right to request assistance, 30–1
- requested intervention. See consent to intervention
- responsibility to protect (R2P), applicability of, 17
- Rodríguez, Delcy, 28
- Russian Federation
 Syria operation (v. ISIS, 2015–), 1–2, 10–11, 14, 17, 19
 Ukraine/Crimea operation (2014), 1, 99
- Saudi-Arabia. See also Decisive Storm, operation (in Yemen, 2015)
 non-recognition of Assad regime in Syria, 17
 weapons supplies to Syrian opposition
 groups, 18, 84
- Schachter, Oscar, 83–4
- secession (repression of) author's analytical approach to, 1, 21–3 condemnation of secessionist declaration of independence, 149–53
 existing legal framework as to armed intervention against secession, 146–9 invocation of consent to intervention, 149–53 justification of intervention against, 151–2 precedent for repression of, 152–3 problems of claims of consensual interventions against, 153–5
 right of secession and self-determination, 36, 99
- Security Council involvement in Yemen crisis (2015), 123–8
- Security Council's role in Mali crisis (2013), 156–60
- Serval, operation (France in Mali, 2013), 1, 14, 96–7, 146–60
- trialogue method of analysis, 21–3
- Yemen crisis (2015), 123–8
- Security Council
 Albania political crisis (1997), 95–6
 Angola Resolution (1976), 30–1
 and anti-ISIS intervention in Iraq and Syria, 141–5 anti-terrorism intervention against ISIS in Iraq (2014), 141–3
 anti-terrorism intervention against ISIS in Syria (2014), 169–72
 authorisation of intervention, 19–20, 95–7 consensual intervention, 184–5. See consent to intervention
- Côte d'Ivoire presidential succession crisis
 (2010), 93
- democratic legitimacy view of consensual intervention, 238–49
- ECOWAS pro-democratic intervention in
 The Gambia (2017), 169–72
- French anti-terrorism operation in Mali (Operation Serval, 1997), 96–7
- Gambia political crisis (2017), 165–9
- IDI view of consensual intervention, 231–8
- institutionalisation of armed intervention, 325–6
- Iraqi invasion of Kuwait (1990), 78
- lawmaking role as to armed intervention, 326–8
- legal effects of new activist approach to consensual intervention, 186–7

- Mali secession crisis (2013), 141–5
 multilateralisation of armed intervention, 329–30 Nicaragua view of consensual intervention, 227–30 non-international armed conflicts (NIACs), 186 on piracy control measures as acts of force, 61–3 politicisation of armed intervention, 328–9 power of armed intervention, 17 ‘pro-democratic’ intervention in Haiti crisis (1994), 87–8 right of secession and self-determination, 36, 99, 123–8, 172–5 secession crisis in Mali (2013), 169–72 terrorism view of consensual intervention, 249–50
 Yemen crisis (2015), 123–8
- self-defence
 as legitimate intervention, 101–2
 collective self-defence as legitimate armed intervention, 31, 76–81
- self-determination and consensual intervention, 9–10, 102
 counter-intervention and, 85
 legal aspects of, 102–7
 right of secession and self-determination, 36, 99
- Senegal, and Côte d’Ivoire presidential succession crisis (2010), 92–3, 94, 95–7
- Sierra Leone, ‘pro-democratic’ intervention in (1997), 88–91
- Somalia, piracy control measures as acts of force, 60–3
- South Africa. See apartheid
- sovereignty. See statehood
- Spain, and Venezuelan constitutional crisis (2019), 26
- State practice, as incomplete and inconsistent source of international law as to consensual intervention, 183
- statehood
 self-determination. See self-determination sovereign right to request assistance, 30–1
- strict abstentionism doctrine. See negative equality doctrine
- Suriname, piracy control measures as acts of force, 61
- Sweden, and Venezuelan constitutional crisis (2019), 26
- Syria. See also Islamic State in Iraq and al-Sham (ISIS) and illegitimacy of consensual intervention, 10–11 Arab spring (2011), 8 civil war (2011–), 10–11, 28 non-recognition of Assad regime, 17
 Russian operation in (against ISIS, 2015–), 1–2, 10–11, 14, 17, 19 weapons supplies as counter-intervention, 84 weapons supplies to opposition groups, 18
- Taliban. See Afghanistan
- terrorism. See also al-Qaeda; Islamic State in Iraq and al-Sham (ISIS) anti-terrorism measures as acts of force, 63–4 existing legal framework as to requests for, 128–31
 invocation of consent, 132–6
 invocation of consent to intervention against, 132–6
 problems of claims of consensual interventions against, 136–8
- terrorism view of consensual intervention
 applicability of, 268–69
 contemporary context of, 249–50
 overview of, 188–9
 Security Council’s view of, 249–50, 269
 support from State practice, 209–12
 terrorist group participation in author-analysed conflicts, 211–12
- The Gambia
 Restore Democracy, operation (by ECOWAS in The Gambia, 2017). See pro-democratic intervention
- third State intervention and notion of, 38–9 laws of war and recognition of intervention, 39–41 treaties, consent and law of treaties, 6–7
- trialogue method of analysis, 20–1, 319
- Turkey
 non-recognition of Assad regime in Syria, 17
 weapons supplies to Syrian opposition groups, 18, 84
- Ukraine, Russian operation in Crimea (2014), 1, 99
- United Arab Emirates (UAE). See Decisive Storm, operation (in Yemen, 2015)

- United Kingdom (UK)
 and Venezuelan constitutional crisis (2019), 26 intervention against ISIS, 5 weapons supplies to Syrian opposition
 groups, 18, 84
- United Nations (UN). See also General Assembly; International Court of Justice (ICJ); Security Council and consensual intervention, 29
 and legitimacy of armed intervention, 32–7
 and non-intervention principle, 34–5
 and Venezuelan constitutional crisis (2019), 27
 on consent and the use of force, 54–64 on piracy control measures as acts of force, 60–3
 prohibition of use of force, 29
- United States (US)
 and Venezuelan constitutional crisis
 (2019), 26–8
 Inherent Resolve, operation (in Iraq v. ISIS, 2014–). See Islamic State in Iraq and al-
 Sham (ISIS)
 Iraqi invasion of Kuwait (1990), 78–9
 Just Cause, Operation (in Panama, 1989), 93
 Nicaragua intervention (1984). See Nicaragua judgment (1986)
 non-recognition of Assad regime in Syria, 17
 Osama bin Laden assassination (2011), 63–4
 Uphold Democracy, Operation (in Haiti, 1994), 87–8
 Urgent Fury, operation (in Grenada, 1983), 55
 weapons supplies to Syrian opposition
 groups, 18, 84
- use of force
 and consensual intervention, 54–64, 101
 coercion and intervention, 47–9
 laws of war and recognition of, 32–7 testing of foundational assumptions of prohibition, 98–9
- Vecchio, Carlos A., 26, 27
- Venezuela, constitutional crisis (2019), 8, 26–8
- volenti non fit iniuria*, 4
- weapons, arming of opposition, prohibition of, 18–19
- Winfield, Percy Henry, 39
- Yanukovych, Viktor, 29, 99
- Yemen. See Decisive Storm, operation (in Yemen, 2015)