

The Classical Association.

The objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claim of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries; (d) to create opportunities for intercourse among lovers of classical learning.

Membership of the Association is open to men and women alike. The annual subscription is 5s. (life composition, £3 15s.). Members receive a copy of the annual Proceedings of the Association and, on a payment of 2/6, of The Year's Work in Classical Studies * (both post free). They may also obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices, though the reduction cannot be guaranteed unless the subscription is paid before January 31st in each year. Greece and Rome may be obtained for an annual subscription of 7s. 6d.

Applications for membership should be addressed to the Hon. Treasurer of the Association (Miss Gedge, Westfield College [University of London], Hampstead, N.W. 3). Inquiries should be addressed to either of the Hon. Secretaries of the Association (J. J. R. Bridge, C.B.E., Mutcombe, Fairfield Park, Bath, and L. J. D. Richardson, M.A., University College, Cardiff), or to the Hon. Secretary of any one of the Local Branches, viz., Aberystwyth, Bedford and Northampton, Birmingham, Bristol, Cardiff, East Anglia, Hull, Kent, Leeds, Leicester, Liverpool, London, Manchester, Northumberland and Durham, North Wales, Nottingham, Oxford, Reading, Sheffield, Southampton, South Western, Sussex, Swansea, Taunton and West Somerset.

* Publication of the Year's Work is temporarily suspended.

THE ANGLO-HELLENIC LEAGUE

The Anglo-Hellenic League was founded in 1913, and its aims are to strengthen the ties between Britain and Greece and to promote friendship between the British and Hellenic races by spreading information, encouraging travel, and improving social, commercial and international relations.

The League is an independent, non-governmental and non-political institution.

H.R.H. the Duchess of Kent has accepted the office of President and Chief Patron of the League, which became vacant on the lamented death of her husband. The Chairman of its Executive Committee is the Rt. Honble. Sir Percy Loraine, Bt., G.C.M.G.

The events of the war and the Anglo-Greek alliance have widened the opportunities for service and activity of the Anglo-Hellenic League. All those who are interested in Anglo-Hellenic friendship, in the cause of Greece, in the liberation of Greece from the present oppression, are cordially invited to apply for membership of the League.

Full particulars can be obtained on application, from the Honorary Secretary, Mr. P. B. Metaxas, Greek House, 32, Grosvenor Square, London, W.1.
