The International Association for Chinese Management Research (IACMR), founded in 2002, is a professional, academic organization to serve scholars, students, managers, and consultants who are interested in advancing knowledge about management of organizations operating in the Chinese context.

The primary goal of the Association is to promote scholarly studies of organization and management of firms by

- Providing a forum for exchange of ideas and experience among researchers about management research in the Chinese context.
- Facilitating international collaboration between management researchers around the globe.
- Promoting the development of management research capabilities IN and ON China.
- Publishing the journal, Management and Organization Review (MOR), dedicated to the mission of the Association (MOR: <http://www.iacmr.org/MOR.htm>).

Recent activities of IACMR include:

- Bi-annual international conference beginning with the Inaugural Conference in Beijing, PRC, June 17–20, 2004.
- Annual business meeting at the same site as the Academy of Management meeting.
- Special lecture by Professor James MARCH on August 8, 2003, in Seattle, Washington.
- Special lecture by Mr. Chuanzhi LIU, Chairman, Legend Group on August 5, 2002, in Denver, Colorado.
- Research seminars by leading Chinese scholars in Beijing, including Professors Chao CHEN, Jiing-Lih Larry FARH, Kaiping PENG, , and Anne S. TSUI.
- Official journal Management and Organization Review, published by Blackwell, with the sample issue of volume 1, issue 1 (March 2005) available in June 2004.
