

MRS Seeks Nominees for 2003 Outstanding Young Investigator Award

The Materials Research Society is accepting nominations for the Outstanding Young Investigator Award to be announced at the 2003 MRS Spring Meeting in San Francisco. The OYI award recognizes outstanding, interdisciplinary scientific work in materials research by a young scientist or engineer. The award recipient must also show exceptional promise as a developing leader in the materials area.

The award consists of a $3,000 cash prize, a presentation trophy bearing a brief citation, and a certificate. Reasonable travel expenses to attend the Spring Meeting at which the award is presented and the meeting registration fee will be reimbursed.

The deadline for submission of nominations is October 1, 2002. For guidelines and application forms, contact Sue Novosel, Materials Research Society, 506 Keystone Drive, Warrendale, PA 15086-7573, USA; e-mail novosel@mrs.org, or access the MRS Web site at www.mrs.org/awards/.

MRS Co-sponsorship or Endorsement of Symposia/Meetings

The Materials Research Society recognizes that a thriving international network of professional communication is critical to ensuring rapid advancement in interdisciplinary materials research. Toward this end, MRS welcomes the opportunity to cooperate with other technical societies and organizations in co-sponsorships or endorsements of technical symposia.
