

BLACKFRIARS

a study of the historical setting of the Founder of the Salesians, TERESA HIGGINSON, by F. W. Kershaw (Sands, 4d.) faces the difficulty of her letters. ST. PAULA (Washbourne and Bogan, 12/6) is the life of St. Jerome's friend, adapted from the French of Mgr. F. Lagrange by the Benedictine Nuns of Talacre. ST. BERNADETTE OF LOURDES, by a Religious of the Immaculate Conception of Our Lady of Lourdes (Burns Oates, 3/6) is an artless study of the peasant girl whose name is now so famously exalted. Two hundred years earlier, across the Atlantic, beyond the last stockades of New France, lived another girl, whose tribe still sings the Mass in their Iroquois tongue to the plain-song melodies of the Church taught by the blackrobes. Those who read KATHERI, the Maid of the Mohawks, by Margaret Thorn (Alexander Ouseley, 3/6) will share the hopes of these Red Indians for her speedy canonization. While Katheri was alive, the borders of Staffordshire and Shropshire were largely Catholic land, and round the statue of OUR LADY OF BREWOOD Agnes Blundell has written a performable three-act play for children [Burns Oates, 1/-],
