Being and Existence in Kierkegaard's Pseudonymous Works

JOHN W. ELROD

In this study Elrod demonstrates that Kierkegaard's pseudonymous writings have an ontological foundation that unites the disparate elements of these books. The descriptions of the different stages of human development are not fully understandable, the author argues, without an awareness of the role played by this ontology in Kierkegaard's analysis of human existence. $11.50

Kierkegaard's Pseudonymous Authorship

A Study of Time and the Self

MARK C. TAYLOR

This book deals with a central problem in the writings of Sorèn Kierkegaard, the themes of time and the self as developed in the pseudonymous writings. Arguing that a most effective way to grasp the unity of Kierkegaard's dialectic of the stages of existence is to focus on the dramatic presentation of time and the self that appears at each stage, Taylor pursues these themes from the viewpoints of theology, philosophy, and related areas of study. $18.50

PHILOSOPHY RESEARCH ARCHIVES

William P. Alston, Editor

The Philosophy Research Archives is a microfilm journal of philosophy in English and French. The American Philosophical Association, the Canadian Philosophical Association, and the Philosophy Documentation Center are the joint sponsors of this new publication.

The following types of manuscripts are welcome: articles, monographs, translations and bibliographies. All manuscripts are refereed by a distinguished group of philosophers, who evaluate all papers "blindly" and provide authors with written comments. Normally, accepted manuscripts are published within four months or less from the date of submission.

The editorial pages and the table of contents for the Archives are to be found in each issue of the Philosopher's Index.

Yearly volumes are available on microfiche at a cost of $20 for institutions and $10 for individuals. Copies of individual articles are available in the form of page prints.

For further information on the submission of manuscripts or subscriptions, please write to: Philosophy Research Archives, Philosophy Documentation Center, Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio 43403, U.S.A.

THE S.C.M. BOOK ROOM

offers comprehensive service to serious readers. Of particular interest to readers of Dialogue is our extensive selection of titles in philosophy, linguistics, the history and philosophy of science, classics, and the philosophy of religion. In addition to books available from Canadian sources, we import books directly from the U.S., the United Kingdom, and Europe.

In our philosophy section, we have a large selection of titles in all the systematic areas of philosophy and in the history of philosophy, including virtually all the writings available in English of major philosophers, as well as contemporary continental, Anglo-American, and Canadian philosophy.

Mail order service is available. Customers may order any book in print either by telephoning or writing.

A 10% discount is available on all trade titles.
