

EUROPEAN SOCIOLOGICAL REVIEW

<http://www.oup.co.uk/eurosj/>

Edited by Hans-Peter Blossfeld, Bremen University, Germany

- Publishes results of sociological inquiry from Europe and around the world.
- Gives priority to work based on empirical research that addresses substantive problems and is conducted to high methodological standards.
- Encourages cross-national comparative work that covers European societies.
- Contributes to the development of sociology by publishing theoretical and methodological contributions where these have a direct relevance to the conduct of sociological research

The New History in an Old Museum

Creating the Past at Colonial Williamsburg
Richard Handler and Eric Gable

"Handler and Gable take us behind the scenes. . . . I know of no other book that presents such a complete and complex portrait of the museum as a social, economic, and cultural institution."—Roy Rosenzweig, George Mason University
272 pages, paper $16.95

Liberty, Equality, and Justice

Civil Rights, Women's Rights, and the Regulation of Business, 1865–1932
Ross Evans Paulson

"Paulson's work is a fine addition to our historical understanding of a central theme in American history—the priority of individual rights over collective welfare."—Kathryn Kish Sklar, SUNY Binghamton
376 pages, paper $18.95

Decentering the Regime

Ethnicity, Radicalism, and Democracy in Juchitán, Mexico
Jeffrey W. Rubin

"Decentering the Regime reveals a creative, unorthodox political scientist at work. Rubin integrates trenchant cultural and ethnohistorical analysis into his examination of local, regional, and national politics."—Gilbert M. Joseph, Yale University
328 pages, paper $17.95

To Die in This Way

Nicaraguan Indians and the Myth of Mestizaje, 1880–1965
Jeffrey L. Gould

"To Die in This Way is an extraordinary achievement. The research required to sustain such an innovative and original argument is truly impressive, ranging from searches through political and legal archives to ethnography and oral history. In short, this is a pathbreaking major work in Latin American history."—John Coatsworth, Harvard University
320 pages, paper $18.95
