DESCRIPTION

Theatre Survey, the journal of the American Society for Theatre Research, is a biannual (May and November) publication of approximately 150 pages in length. As a theatre history journal, TS includes articles on historiographic and most performance-centered studies (regardless of culture or critical methodology), as well as book reviews. The journal is distributed to members of ASTR as a benefit of membership, as well as to a large number of national and international individual and institutional subscribers. Distribution includes teachers, graduate students, administrators, professionals, academic institutions, and several major metropolitan public libraries.

REQUIREMENTS AND RATES

SIZES AND COSTS: Full page (4½ x 7½) outside dimensions—$350.

Half page (4½ x 3½) outside dimensions—$200.

All ads must be camera-ready (half tones extra).

DEADLINES: March 15 for May issue, September 15 for November issue.

The American Society for Theatre Research

The American Society for Theatre Research was founded in 1956 to encourage theatre scholarship and to provide a link with other similar groups represented in the International Federation for Theatre Research. ASTR is the only American theatre organization affiliated with the American Council of Learned Societies and the International Federation for Theatre Research (IFTR/FIRT). In 1967 it was incorporated under the laws of the State of New Jersey as a non-profit corporation. In informal correspondence it is referred to as ASTR.

Theatre Survey, the official journal of the Society, is published twice a year, in May and November. The Annual Meeting of the ASTR occurs each fall.

Inquiries and communications for ASTR other than membership (see inside front cover) should be addressed to Judy Wilmeth, Box 1897, Brown University, Providence, RI 02912. ASTR annual dues are $45 ($25 for students, $30 for retirees). Membership includes a subscription to Theatre Survey. Subscriptions for institutions and for non-members are $45 per year.
