

These Books Make Ideal Gifts

AS THE WORLD WAGS ON

By Arthur R. Ford, Editor-in-Chief, The London Free Press. These memoirs are of absorbing interest. They cover the last fifty years and give a personal close-up of international events. $4.00.

WARTIME ECONOMIC CO-OPERATION

By R. Warren James. A history of the intimate economic co-operation between Canada and the United States during World War II. The author served on both the Wartime Prices and Trade Board and the Combined Production and Resources Board in Washington. $5.00.

THE AMERICAN MIND

By Henry Steele Commager. The author has a passionate belief in the staying powers of democratic principles. He sees the difference between Hollywood's view of America and that of the ablest novelists, Hemingway, Dreiser, Lewis, Willa Cather, etc. $6.50.

THIS IS RUSSIA UNCENSORED

By Edmund Stevens. Pulitzer Prize Winner, 1950. The true, if shocking, story of Mr. Stevens' experiences. He was Moscow correspondent for the Christian Science Monitor and the Manchester Guardian. $3.25.

THE H-BOMB

By Hans Morgenthau, Walter Lippman and many others. Introduction by Albert Einstein. Here, at last, is the first book on the greatest challenge of our century. It answers such questions as: When will Russia have a hydrogen bomb? What would happen if a hydrogen bomb hit an average American city? $3.25.

The Canadian Almanac and Directory for 1951

Edited by MARSH JEANNERET

FOR over a century the Canadian Almanac and Directory has served as the standard reference work on Canadian affairs, both domestic and foreign. During that time it has grown from a small pamphlet into its present format of over eight hundred pages. Every one of its more than fifty-thousand listings is carefully revised each year, and its accuracy and completeness have established it as the standard reference directory in offices, libraries, and institutions whenever they require information relating to Canadian matters. A brief examination of the many and important lists of names of officials, post offices, institutions, etc., in the Dominion, will indicate the vast range of information it provides. Full Case Binding, $8.50
