

CORRIGENDUM

Subsequent to publication of his article “The velar stops and fricatives in the languages of MSS A, B, C of the Nibelungenlied” (AJGLL 1,1:1989, 67-87), William G. Moulton has provided the following to substitute for the final paragraph and table on p. 78 (bottom).

Parallel to the shift of */-kk-/ to /-kkx-/ was that of */-nk-, -lk-, -rk-/ to /-nkx-, -lkx-, -rkx-/ as in the following sample words: /dánkxən/ ‘danken’, /vólkxəs/ ‘(des) Volkes’, /stárkxən/ ‘starken (inflected)’. Scribal spellings:

	MS C	MS A	MS B
/dánkxən/	10 -nch-	2 -nch-, 7 -nk-	10 -nch-
/vólkxəs/	7 -lch-	1 -lch-, 5 -lk-	7 -lch-
/stárkxən/	36 -rch-	14 -rch-, 30 -rk-	45 -rch-
