A CHRISTOLOGY from the SERMONS of ST VINCENT FERRER

selected and translated by S.M.C.

Six hundred years ago St Vincent Ferrer preached—sermons which were the talk of Western Europe, to which immense crowds of every class listened attentively. From the five volumes of these sermons published in Spanish, S.M.C. has selected and translated some twenty-five of the best, which form a remarkable commentary on the life of our Lord.

ESSAYS IN CHRISTIAN UNITY

by HENRY ST JOHN, O.P.

The essays collected here and written by a leading authority on the ecumenical movement were for the most part published between the years 1928-1954, although some new material has been added and some revisions made. In all they give a clear-cut picture of the problem of Christian Unity and the development of thought in this field during the last twenty-five years.

THE HOUSE OF GOLD

by BEDE JARRETT, O.P.

First published in the thirties and long since out of print, this book achieved great popularity. Much of it is devoted to Catholic ideals in courtship, marriage and family life and it makes excellent spiritual reading for the Catholic man (or woman) in the street.

A VINCENT McNABB ANTHOLOGY

Edited by F. E. NUGENT

Cutting across a published output of some 40 books and pamphlets, and several hundred articles and poems, this collection gives a rounded picture of the writings of Father Vincent McNabb, O.P. It is a work with merits and satisfactions of its own, whether one goes to it for its trenchant, expressive prose, or for one of the finest essays in English ('Francis Thompson'), or for spiritual help, or for understanding of some of the moral and social problems of our times.

“THAT THE CHURCH MAY SPREAD AND INCREASE: this is the intention for which we must offer our prayers and our labours”, says Pope Pius XII in his encyclical on the Mystical Body.

The work of the Mill Hill Fathers in Africa, India, the Far East and New Zealand, has this one aim. You can work with them for the spread of the Church by fostering vocations to the missionary priesthood.
