La Escena Latinoamericana

La Escena Latinoamericana, la primera revista internacional sobre la puesta en escena en Latinoamérica, se ocupa del teatro actual, de sus tendencias y experimentos, con el fin de entregar un conocimiento de nuestros espectáculos en el mundo, analizando sus técnicas escénicas, el trabajo del actor, el trabajo del director o bien la práctica teatral de un grupo o de un proyecto teatral en el tiempo.

La Escena Latinoamericana se propone rescatar puestas en escenas de años precedentes, de un grupo, de un director, de un teatro, de una temática central, con el objetivo de reconstituir la memoria teatral de los espectáculos producidos por latinoamericanos o sobre autores de nuestro continente, trazando su trayectoria en el tiempo y presentando un material visual que complementa la memoria textual.

La Escena Latinoamericana se concentra en el acto creativo, dando la palabra a los creadores, recogiendo sus comentarios y reflexiones sobre el teatro latinoamericano y a la vez cuenta con la colaboración de especialistas reconocidos internacionalmente en el campo de la teoría y de la crítica del teatro latinoamericano que vienen a complementar el acto creativo.

La Escena Latinoamericana va más allá de la simple reseña teatral, recuperando una memoria perdida como memoria presente, y por ello se invita a la reflexión y al debate sobre nuestro teatro, única forma de contribución durable. Así, ofrece un producto de alta calidad crítica, teórica y estética, tres requisitos básicos para todo desarrollo del arte.

New Theatre Quarterly

"Every college library – every drama department – every student of theatre – every theatre-goer has to subscribe"

Eric Bentley

"... the best theatre magazine I know of in English ..."

Edward Bond

"I collect NTQ. I use it. I keep having to refer to it."

Arnold Wesker

"We should thank our lucky stars that NTQ has been around to stimulate the clapped-out brain cells of the English theatre"

Charles Marowitz

New Theatre Quarterly is the literary forum where theatrical scholarship and practice meet. Its hard hitting articles question prevailing assumptions in the theatre world. NTQ follows four independent premises:

- theatre needs a philosophy
- theatre studies need a methodology
- criticism needs a language
- theatre history has contemporary relevance

Features of NTQ include interviews, debates, and book reviews. Articles cover Geography, Politics, History, Education – all aspects of life as they relate to the theatrical world.

Staging Shakespeare's Late Plays

ROGER WARREN

Roger Warren draws upon extensive theatrical experience of Pericles, Cymbeline, The Winter's Tale, and The Tempest in rehearsal and performance, including a season at the National Theatre in 1988 under the direction of Sir Peter Hall. This book breaks new ground in describing how the rehearsal process focuses the principal theatrical issues of Shakespeare's late plays.

THEATRE RESEARCH / RECHERCHES THEATRALES

The International Federation published the journal Theatre Research/Recherches Théâtrales from 1959 to 1975 when it was succeeded by Theatre Research International. During these years many important articles of original research were published covering the whole field of theatre history from the earliest times, and particularly Shakespeare and the Elizabethan period, to more recent figures such as Strindberg, Craig and Beckett. There have been special issues on the themes of Opera, the Playwright as Director, and Reinhardt; a check-list of world theatre on records; and reports on International Conferences and Symposia of the I.F.T.R. In all 14 volumes were published in 36 issues including a complete index. Most back issues are still available.

University and institutional libraries, and especially those who have subscribed to the new journal Theatre Research International, are recommended to take this opportunity of completing their holding of the earlier issues of this publication, while copies last.

Price: per issue £4 ($6); per volume £8 ($12) plus postage

A few complete runs of the 14 volumes (with two issues in facsimile) are available at £70($100). Postage extra.
