

EDITOR'S NOTE

ALBION is the Proceedings of the Conference on British Studies at its Regional and National Meetings. Published four times a year, its contents include, but are not limited to, papers read at meetings of the Conference. Papers presented at any of these meetings are eligible for publication in ALBION. Where space does not permit all papers read at a particular meeting to be published, the editors of ALBION will require contributors to abstract those which cannot be printed in their entirety.

Papers should be submitted in duplicate and in a format suitable for publication to Dr. Barry M. Gough, Managing Editor of Albion, Department of History, Waterloo Lutheran University, Waterloo, Ontario, Canada. All Manuscripts, double spaced, should conform to the most recent edition A Manual of Style published by the University of Chicago Press. Authors should note the new footnoting form adopted by the Manual.

---

A subscription to ALBION is included with membership in the Conference on British Studies. Information about membership in the Conference can be obtained from Professor Samuel C. McCulloch, Executive Secretary, Conference on British Studies, Department of History, University of California, Irvine, California 92664.

Persons and institutions who are not members of the Conference on British Studies may subscribe to ALBION by writing to ALBION Business Manager, Department of History, University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho 83843. Annual Subscription, Four Dollars. Subscribers are asked to notify the Business Manager of changes of address.