

Recruiting Foster Parents
Looking to the Future
Children's Bureau Annual Report
Child Protective Services
Child Abuse & Neglect
Adopt a Family - Dial a Granny

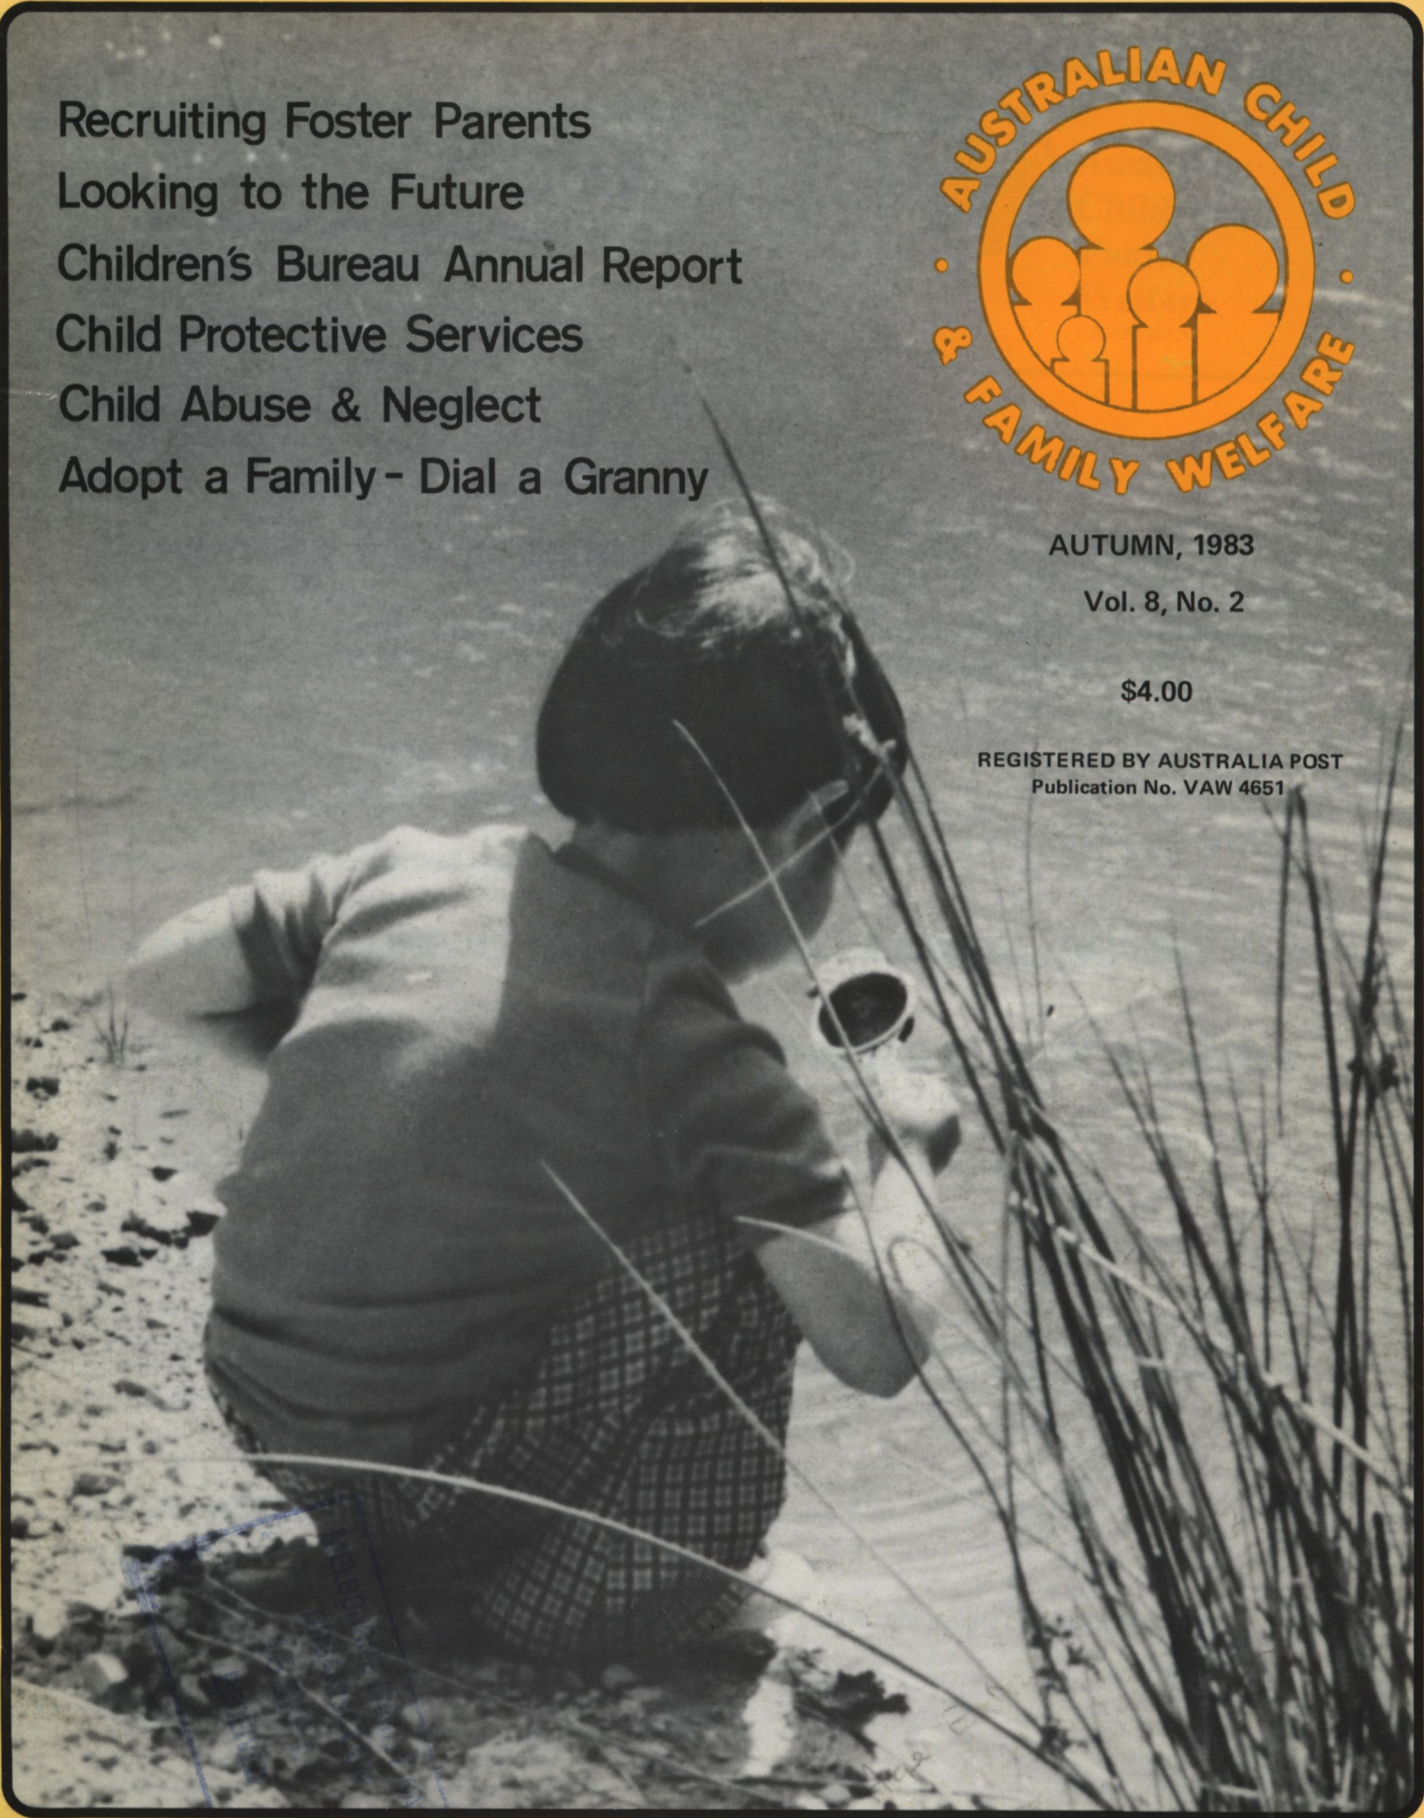

AUTUMN, 1983

Vol. 8, No. 2

$4.00

REGISTERED BY AUSTRALIA POST
Publication No. VAW 4651

IN THIS ISSUE

Australian Child and Family
Welfare
(QUARTERLY)

EDITORIAL

Margarita Frederico

2

RECRUITING FOSTER PARENTS

Jill Volard

Jill Volard reports on research into the characteristics of foster parents in Queensland. She identifies some implications for recruiting foster parents, using as a guide knowledge arising from the research.

3

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE – ISSUES THAT AFFECT YOUNG PEOPLE

David Scott

Address to the Children's Bureau Luncheon July 1983

10

CHILDRENS BUREAU OF AUSTRALIA –ANNUAL REPORT

12

CHILD PROTECTIVE SERVICES IN THE U.S.A. & IN VICTORIA

Phillip Swain

The author describes child protection policies as exist in Michigan, U.S.A. and in Victoria. He uses the comparison of the two systems to identify strengths and weaknesses in both programmes.

16

CHILD ABUSE & NEGLECT

Frederick L. Ahearn

In this paper the author describes an evaluation of a programme in the U.S.A., which provided psychiatric assistance to abused and neglected children and their families. The implications of the models reviewed are identified.

20

CASE NOTES

Adopt a Family – Dial A Granny

Janie Barbour

The author describes a community service developed as part of a child care support programme, drawing upon the involvement of elderly people.

25

BOOK REVIEWS

28