UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

Chair of Chinese

Applications are invited for a Chair of Chinese, tenable from as soon as possible. The main interest of the Department is in the field of Chinese language and literature, but degree courses in Chinese history, Chinese philosophy and translation are also offered. Applicants should be able to teach two or more courses at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. They should also have substantial research experience and academic publications, and experience in the supervision and development of higher degree programmes.

The University would prefer to make a permanent appointment, but consideration may also be given to applications for appointment on fixed or secondment terms of preferably not less than three academic years.

The University reserves the right to fill the Chair by invitation.

Annual salary (superannuable) will be within the professorial range and not less than HK$392,460 (approx. £34,130; sterling equivalent at 6 January, 1987). At current rates, salaries tax will not exceed 17% of gross income. Housing at a rental of 7½% of salary, children's education allowances, leave, and medical benefits are provided.

Further particulars and application forms may be obtained from the Secretary General, Association of Commonwealth Universities (Acppts), 36 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PF, or from the Appointments Unit, Registry, University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong. Closes 8 April 1987.

Senior Appointment in Islamic Studies

The Department of Religion at Temple University in Philadelphia, USA, announces the search for a Senior Appointment in Islamic Studies for the Fall of 1987. Candidates should be well established scholars of wide reputation. The graduate program (PhD) of the department presently has 160 students and is one of the largest graduate programs in religion in North America. Qualified applicants should send their academic vita to: Dr. John C. Raines, Chair, Islamics Search Committee, Department of Religion, Temple University, Philadelphia, PA 19122, USA.

The Manenguba Languages (Bantu A.15, Mbo Cluster) of Cameroon

ROBERT HEDINGER

The Manenguba languages are spoken on and around the Manenguba mountain range situated in the south-western part of the Republic of Cameroon.

The aim of this study is to compare the different languages and dialects with a view to reconstructing aspects of the phonology, the noun class concord system and vocabulary of the common proto-languages, and to make a classification of the languages and dialects which expresses the relationships between them and their development from the proto-language.

It gives first-hand information on a group of Bantu languages which have hardly been studied, and reaches conclusions which have implications for the whole of Bantu and beyond.
