Dear Sirs,

I am collating information on research on cognitive therapy being conducted in the United Kingdom. This information will be distributed to those involved to keep them better informed of each other's activities. I would be most grateful if anyone working in this area, whose research I do not already know, could let me have details of their work.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir,

The Training and Workshop subcommittee of the BAPB National Executive is interested in encouraging the production of videotapes for training purposes.
