
THE BROWNING'S OF CASA GUIDI

Edward C. McAleer

A brief account of the Brownings' life together and of the house that was their home. "Edward C. McAleer's captivating little text, absolutely the best of its kind, serves as a guidebook to the domestic Brownings. . . . concise, lucid and graceful. . . . His book is intended for intelligent readers relatively unfamiliar with the terrain; but even the specialist will come across items forgotten or overlooked" (Boston Globe). Illustrated.

Cloth: $13.25 plus handling charge; members' price, $10.60 plus handling charge. Paperback: Out of stock.

THE BROWNING'S CORRESPONDENCE: A CHECKLIST

Compiled by Philip Kelley and Ronald Hudson

This much-needed census of the correspondence of Robert and Elizabeth Barrett Browning contains information on more than 10,000 letters written by or addressed to the poets, with a full index. "A major reference work which every scholar in Victorian literature should consult" (Studies in Browning). A co-publication with Wedgstone Press.

Cloth: $125.00; non-library members' price, $65.00.

BROWNING INSTITUTE STUDIES

Edited by William S. Peterson

Browning Institute Studies, the hardcover annual of the Browning Institute, contains material on all aspects of Victorian literary and cultural history. Regular features include the annual bibliography of the Brownings and articles about their lives and works. "Handsome format . . . every contribution is written in lucid English . . . a creditable production" (Browning Society Notes). "Concentrates on the kind of hard research which the Browning Institute is best equipped to foster" (Victorian Poetry). Illustrated.

$20.50 plus handling charge; members' price, $11.00 plus handling charge. Current volume free with membership subscription except to Student Members and Foreign Members. BIS 10 (1982): "Victorian Classicism" (Gerhard Joseph, Guest Editor). BIS 9 (1981): "Editing the Victorians" (N. John Hall, Guest Editor). BIS 8 (1980): "Victorian Medievalism." BIS 7 (1979): "Victorian Writers and Their Publishers." BIS 1-6 also available.

Elizabeth Barrett Browning's CASA GUIDI WINDOWS

Edited with an Introduction
and Notes by Julia Markus

This new critical edition is the first volume of Elizabeth Barrett Browning's poetry to be edited in accordance with modern scholarly standards. Dr. Markus argues for a reevaluation of Mrs. Browning's poetry, and points out the historical misconceptions, aesthetic bias, and anti-feminist prejudice that have combined to obscure Mrs. Browning's most political poem. Includes an Introduction, reliable text, historical and critical notes, and textual notes. Illustrated.

$8.75 plus handling charge; members price, $7.00 plus handling charge.

ROBERT AND ELIZABETH BARRETT BROWNING: AN ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY, 1951-1970

William S. Peterson

An indispensable source book which fills the gap between the standard Browning bibliography by Broughton, Northup and Pearsall, and the annual annotated Browning bibliography published in Browning Institute Studies. Nearly 2,000 items. "No Browning library of any size can afford to be without it" (Browning Society Notes).

$22.50 plus handling charge; members' price, $18.00 plus handling charge.