

Latin American Research Review

about this and future courses from: Dr. Timothy Brown, Dept of Romance Languages, University of Arizona, Tucson 85721.

Travel Study Programs in Ecuador and Colombia

For the 5th consecutive year summer travel programs will be conducted by the Oregon Division of Continuing Education. The Ecuador program is based at the Central University at Quito and will include lectures in Ecuadorian history, art, culture and anthropology and visits to museums, cultural and educational centers as well as field trips to Indian villages and archeological sites. The Colombian program will take place in Bogotá, Cartagena and Medellín and will also include lectures, field trips and visits to places of interest. Dates of the Ecuador program are June 29–July 26, 1970, and for the Colombian one June 30–July 27, 1970. Information may be obtained from: International Programs, Division of Continuing Education, 1736 Moss Street, Eugene, Oregon 97403.

Undergraduate Program in Brazil

The Commission on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) and the Federal University, Rio Grande do Sul at Porto Alegre have organized a ten month undergraduate program in Brazil. Details from: Professor Claude E. LeRoy, Office of International Studies and Programs, University of Wisconsin, 1410 Van Hise Hall, Madison, Wisconsin 53706.

Movement of Professionals

Antioch College, Ohio: Karl Lenkersdorf was appointed Director of the Latin American Program, Norman Diamond joined the Department of Political Science and David Ober the Department of History.

University of Arizona: D Lee Hamilton, formerly of the U.S. Office of Education has joined the staff as Associate Director of the Latin American Area Center; some 32 staff members from the Departments of Romance Languages, History Geography, Art, Music, Economics, Government, and Anthropology hold appointments in Latin America.

City University of New York: Peter Rains of the Department of Political Science has been awarded a Fullbright lectureship and will be teaching at the Universidad Nacional de Cuyo, Argentina from March–July 1970.

University of Essex, England: Christian Anglade succeeded Simon Collier as Director of the Latin American Centre from January 1970.

George Washington University, Naval War College Center: F. Taylor Peck, who resigned as Executive Secretary of LASA is professor of History at the Naval War College, Newport, Rhode Island.

University of Göttingen, Germany: Ulrich Meye has an appointment at the Instituto de Investigaciones Económicas, Universidad de Antioquia, Medellín, Columbia.

University of Houston: Philip B. Taylor has succeeded Harvey Johnson as Director of the Latin American Studies Committee.

Howard University: José Ferrer-Canales, on sabbatical leave from Howard University in 1968–9 accepted an appointment at the Departamento de Estudios Hispánicos of the University of Puerto Rico, Río Piedras Campus. Edmund Stephen Urbanski was elected Corresponding Member of the Academia de Historia de Santander, Colombia

Long Island University–Southampton College: Steffen W. Schmidt of Colombia has joined the teaching staff in the Political Science Department and will be teaching a course on Latin American Politics.

University of Miami: Bailey W. Diffie has joined the Institute of Inter-American Studies, Center for Advanced International Studies as Adjunct Professor History. He will conduct a seminar on Brazilian History.

Michigan State University: John M Hunter, Professor of Economics, has been appointed Director of the Latin American Studies Center. Rose L. Hayden continues as Assistant Director. Joseph Spielberg, Department of Anthropology is lecturing on a Fulbright Grant in Cuzco, Peru; Hugh Fox, Department of American Thought and Language is teaching in Montevideo, Uruguay during the Fall Term. New Latin American specialists at this University include: Horacio Fabrega, Anthropology and Psychiatry, Robert Thomas, Geography, and Spencer Wellhoffer, Political Science.

Queens College, City University of New York: Herbert Klein of Columbia University will be a visiting associate professor of Latin American History during the Winter Semester 1970. In November 1969 Eugenio

Chang-Rodriguez succeeded Norman Bailey in the Chairman of the Queens College Committee on Latin American Studies. Ronald Schneider, formerly Assistant Director of Columbia University's Latin American Institute, is now Professor of Political Science and member of the Committee on Latin American Studies at Queens. Ralph della Cava and Frederick Forrest are offering courses and seminars during 1970.

Stanford University, California: Fernando Alegria of the Department of Spanish and Portuguese holds an appointment with the National University of Chile.

University of Texas at Austin: New Latin Americanists include Richard Wallace Blood, Assistant Professor of Geography, Phyllis M. Kazen, Visiting Assistant Professor of Sociology on leave from Harvard University, Bernardo Vallejo, Teaching Assistant Associate in Linguistics, William P. Glade, Visiting Professor of Economics. Octavio Paz taught a course in Spanish in the Fall term, Juan Friede and Eduardo Blanquel also held appointments.

University of Wisconsin: Simon Collier, of the University of Essex, England has joined the Department of History, and Ivana Versiani of the Federal University of Minas Gerais, Brazil the Department of Portuguese Language and Structure.

University of West Florida: A. B. Thomas is Visiting Professor, and Wililam S. Coker and Alan M. Kirshner Assistant Professors.

Yale University: Bertram Silverman, Assistant Professor of Economics, Hofstra University is a Post Doctoral Fellow in the Economic Growth Center for the summer and fall of 1970.

Latin Americanists are invited to write to the News Editor of LARR with details of new teaching appointments for inclusion in this section.