Figures

| I.I | A Greeting task from the corpus. | page 9 |
|--------------|---|--------|
| 1.2 | An example of a division of a stretch of text into two | |
| | discourse units. | 17 |
| 4 . I | An example of an Informational Narrative. | 105 |
| 5.1 | Features appearing in 5 per cent or more of the L1 turns | |
| | which do not appear in 5 per cent or more of the L2 turns. | 135 |
| 5.2 | Features present in the Informational Narrative function in | |
| | the TLC – grammatical functions emboldened are shared | |
| | with the TLC L1 Informational Narrative function and | |
| | those functions underlined are present in Example 53. | 158 |
| 6.1 | A Situation-Dependent Commentary discourse unit | |
| | from Spoken BNC 2014 file SXRR. | 175 |
| 8.1 | A narrative split across two discourse units. | 208 |
| | | |