

Newcomen Awards in Business History

Presented by

THE NEWCOMEN SOCIETY IN NORTH AMERICA

in cooperation with

THE BUSINESS HISTORY REVIEW

¶ Two Newcomen Awards in Business History are offered annually for articles published in the Business History Review. The First Prize, of $250, is awarded the article judged, according to the rules outlined below, to be the best of the year. The Special Award, of $100, is for the best article by a graduate student or a recent Ph.D. who has not published a book.

¶ Prize articles are selected by a panel of judges composed of a representative of The Newcomen Society and members of the Advisory Board of the Business History Review. No member of the Advisory Board or editorial staff shall be eligible for a prize, and articles so authored will not be considered in the judging. Authors eligible for the Special Award shall also be eligible for the First Prize, but in no event shall both prizes be awarded for the same article. The Advisory Board reserves the right to withhold the Special Award in the event that eligible articles do not, in the Board's judgment, merit prize consideration. The awards program is administered by the editorial offices of the magazine.

¶ Criteria for selection include: originality, value, breadth, and interest of contribution, quality of research materials and methods, and quality of presentation.

Philip Connelly and Robert Perlman contend that reduced supplies and increased prices for raw materials reflect not absolute limits to growth, but transient political and technological problems.

The Journal of Transport History

Leicester University Press
2 University Road Leicester, England

Established in 1953, this was the first Journal to be devoted to the history of transport as a whole, in all its branches, ancient and modern. It has attained a high reputation for the quality and range of the papers it has published.

A New Series of the Journal was started in 1971, and appears twice yearly, in February and September. Each volume comprises four issues: each issue includes about 64 pages, in size $9\frac{3}{4} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ inches. The comprehensive character of the First Series has been maintained, and the Journal continues to include book reviews as well as articles. One of its leading features is an annual bibliography of periodical articles in transport studies.

The annual subscription rate is £3.00 (U.S. $8.00); single copies £1.75; post free. Further details of the New Series and a list of back issues of the First Series are available on request. The Editorial Committee welcomes the submission of articles for consideration, which should be sent to the Editor at this address.

EXPLORATIONS IN ECONOMIC HISTORY

(formerly EXPLORATIONS IN ENTREPRENEURIAL HISTORY / SERIES 2)

A quarterly devoted to the application of the quantitative tools and theories of the economist to the study of man's social and political institutions and experiences. The topics range through business, financial, agricultural, manufacturing, and transportation systems, and the periods from the earliest historical records to the present day and from the industrial West to the developing areas of the East.

Annual subscription, $10.00; single copy $3.00.

Editor: Prof. Gary M. Walton, Department of Economics, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana 47401.

Published by The Kent State University Press, Kent, Ohio 44240.

The Thomas Newcomen $1,000 Award in Business History

Presented by

THE NEWCOMEN SOCIETY IN NORTH AMERICA

in cooperation with

THE BUSINESS HISTORY REVIEW

☛ The Newcomen Society in North America, in cooperation with the Business History Review, announces a prize of $1,000 and scroll to be awarded in 1976 for the best book on the history of business published in the United States during the years 1973–1975.

☛ For the purposes of this award, “the history of business” will be interpreted in its broadest sense, including not only the history of firms or industries, but books tracing interactions of businessmen, analyses of business philosophy or behavior, and studies of the adjustment of businesses and businessmen to their economic, political, and social environments.

☛ Criteria for selection will include contribution to knowledge, depth of analysis, soundness of reasoning, clarity of style and organization, and general readability and format.

☛ The committee to select the recipient of the 1976 Thomas Newcomen $1,000 Award in Business History is composed of: Professor Glenn Porter, Editor, Business History Review, Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration; Mr. Stanley van den Heuvel, Trustee, The Newcomen Society in North America; and Professor James P. Baughman, Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, chairman.

☛ The 1976 Thomas Newcomen $1,000 Award in Business History will be the fifth in a series of triennial prizes intended to encourage the study and improve the writing of business history in the United States and Canada.

ENTERPRISE AND NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

ESSAYS IN CANADIAN BUSINESS AND ECONOMIC HISTORY
Edited by GLENN PORTER AND ROBERT CUFF

These essays deal with a wide range of important topics in the interaction of business, government, and society in Canada. Their value is two-fold. As careful explorations of Canadian history, they provide important insights into the Canadian past. But the issues they treat are still with us, and these essays make important contributions to the continuing debate over such enduring issues as the mainsprings of national identity, the impact of foreign influence on the economy, the search for economic growth, and the optimum relationship between federal and provincial governments in shaping national development.

These essays appeared originally in Business History Review. Contributors: Glenn Porter, Christopher Armstrong, H. V. Nelles, Michael Bliss, T. W. Acheson, Stephen Scheinberg, Patricia E. Roy, Alan Wilson. 138 pp. $2.50/$6.95.
