Beautiful Imperialist

China Perceives America,
1972-1990

DAVID SHAMBAUGH

From President Nixon's historic visit to China in 1972 to the aftermath of the Tiananmen tragedy, this book examines the changing perceptions of the United States articulated by China's "America Watchers," whose occupation is to interpret the "beautiful imperialist" for China's elite and public. While other studies have looked at the behavioral history of U.S.-China relations, this is the first to probe the perceptual dimension.

Drawing on unique Chinese sources, David Shambaugh analyzes the ambivalent images the America Watchers hold of the economy, society, political system, and foreign policy of the United States.

Policies of Chaos

The Organizational Causes of Violence in China's Cultural Revolution

LYNN T. WHITE III

New in paperback

The tumult of the Cultural Revolution after 1966 is often blamed on a few leaders in Beijing, on long-term egalitarian ideals, or on communist or Chinese political cultures. This book shows, however, that the chaos arose largely from reactions to specific policies of administrative manipulation common after 1949.

"White . . . probably knows more about the history, sociology, economy, and politics of the city of Shanghai than anyone now living in Shanghai. In this book, he uses [that city] as a case study for understanding what policies were responsible for the violence and ostracism that erupted in the Cultural Revolution."—Choice

EDITORIAL AND SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

The Journal of Asian Studies (ISSN 0021-9118), founded in 1941 and known until September 1956 as the Far Eastern Quarterly, is published by the Association for Asian Studies (formerly The Far Eastern Association) in February, May, August, and November. The annual institutional subscription rate for the Journal (including the Bibliography of Asian Studies and the Doctoral Dissertations on Asia) is $80, postage included. Regular members of the Association for Asian Studies receive the Journal as part of their annual membership. Single issues of the Journal and Bibliography published after February 1974 are available through the Secretariat of the Association. Issues published prior to 1958 may be purchased from A.M.S. Reprints, 56 East 13th Street, New York, NY 10003.

The editor welcomes preliminary inquiries about manuscripts for possible publication in The Journal of Asian Studies. Completed manuscripts should be sent to the editor, David D. Buck, JAS, Department of History, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Milwaukee, WI 53201. Please submit four copies. All submitted work should be double-spaced, including extracts, notes, and references. Because manuscripts cannot be returned, please do not send the original. Consult recent issues of the Journal as a guide to the format for source citations, notes, and references. Footnotes should be as few as possible and typed double-spaced at the end of the text. Documentation should follow the style recommended in sections 15.4 through 15.35 of The Chicago Manual of Style, 13th ed. (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 1982), pp. 400–408. All manuscripts submitted to the JAS are expected not to have been published elsewhere and not to be under review for possible publication elsewhere. Manuscripts, including notes, should not be more than 40 pages in length.

Authors are encouraged to submit tables, figures, and black-and-white photographs, and other illustrations along with their manuscripts. Photocopies or photos of record are acceptable for first review and should accompany the manuscript at original submission. Authors who wish to illustrate their articles with photographs must provide black-and-white glossy prints of good quality at the time of final delivery of their copyedited manuscript. Please provide a separate, typewritten, double-spaced list of captions and legends for all illustrations, keyed by number to each figure or photograph, including all necessary credit or permission lines. Authors are responsible for securing and paying for permission to use illustrative material. Do not write on the back of photographs or paste photographs to sheets of paper. Identify each photo by typing the first words of its caption on a stick-on label, then affix the label to the back of the photo. Photographs will be returned after publication.

Books for review and correspondence concerning reviews should be sent to the appropriate editor.
